Large Crowd Dances At Policemen's Ball

The policemen's ball, held Friday night at the Roseburg armory, was well attended. A large crowd danced to the music of Jimmy Whetmore's orchestra, brought to Roseburg especially for the occasion.

The policemen's wives decorated the armory with streamers of maroon, cream and blue.

During the dancing, the saxophonist Bill Rossi was notified by the state police that his father had been killed in an automobile accident an hour previously. True to the showman's tradition, he completed his part of the program before leaving for Portland to attend to funeral arrangements.
