Anti-Trust Suit Hits Steel Men

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The government Tuesday charged the Republic Steel Corp., 19 other steel manufacturers and a trade association with trying to restrain competition in the manufacture and sale of sheet metal and sewer pipe.

The Justice Department made the charge in a civil anti-trust suit filed in federal court at Cleveland, O. The action was announced by

The government's complaint charged that the 20 pipe manufacturers divided up the country among themselves and that each specifically had defined geographical areas for selling the pipe.

The complaint asked the court to dissolve the association and to force the 20 manufacturers to abandon these agreements.

Besides the association and Republic, other defendants included the Eaton Metal Products Co. of Montana, Billings, Mont., and the Thompson Pipe and Steel Co. Denver.
