The letter was written to thank the people of Pendleton for the courtesies and entertainment extended to the T. P. A.'s and their wives when they were here on their tour of the West and saw the Round-Up. Today's corset should be renamed

CALLING a rose a thorn, would be as suitable as calling today's corset, a corset!

We have so long associated the name with a vise-like harness that it is entirely inappropriate to the present dainty support.

The Modart Corset is especially enjoyable. Tho miraculously pliant, it is an effective support, and being a lace-front, one can adjust it right on the figure. (A great advantage, because one's figure varies from day to day). If you have never worn a Modart, we sincerely advocate it for your perfect comfort and well-being.
