New York, Aug. 19 (AP)—Declines of fractions to more than a point predominated in the stock market today.

The market was moderately active on the decline with volume running at the rate of 900,000 shares for the day.

The downward price movement developed after a highly mixed start with stocks moving narrowly.

Only gold mining shares as a group resisted the general trend. They added fractions to a point.

Steels, motors, rails and coppers all were lower. Oils were unchanged to lower. Richfield, however, was higher and showed a fair amount of activity at times.

Soybeans Up; Corn Weakens

Chicago, Aug. 19 (AP)—Soybeans rolled on up to new seasonal peaks in an otherwise weak market on the board of trade today. The break-through of previous resistance levels by soybeans yesterday led to a good deal of new buying in today's session.

Gains in soybeans ranged to around 3 cents at times. The market had to absorb heavy profit-taking, but it did this without giving up much ground.

All grains weakened with corn showing the widest loss. September corn particularly showed an easier trend throughout the session. Rains fell overnight in parts of Iowa which have not had moisture for several weeks, a development which traders said was favorable for improving crop prospects.

Active wheat futures closed 1½ - 1⅞ lower, September $1.98¼-⅜. July, in which trading started yesterday, was unchanged. Corn ended ¼-1⅜ lower, September $1.21⅛-¼, oats were ¼-½ lower, September 65⅝, rye was unchanged to 1 cent higher, September $1.43 ¼-½. Soybeans were ¾ to 3 cents higher, November $2.45-2.45¼, and lard was 3 to 23 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $12.60.
