ENGLISH COMMENT.

LONDON, March 5.—The Daily News says editorially: "President Cleveland will have the hearty sympathy of England. It is our desire that there should be perpetual peace, growing friendship and increased commerce. Everything bringing us nearer together in interest and feel is a gain to both, and to peace and freedom throughout the world."

The Standard speaks of the inaugural address of President Cleveland in a mournful tone. It says: "He carefully avoided ticklish issues. His speech was manly and sensible, but devoid of distinct Democratic policy. There was nothing tangible in the address either to condemn or admire." The Standard thinks the outlook for Cleveland's administration gloomy because he has no war record to back him.

The Times says: "The inaugural address is conceived in a worthy spirit, but throws no light upon the main question awaiting solution."

El Mahdi could not behave worse if he were spreading the Gospel among savage tribes. He says to the gentlemen of the English army, "If you do not become Mohammedans I will wipe you off the face of the earth." Next week he will threaten them with eternal punishment after death if they do not think as he does.

An Arkansas editor's pathetic appeal: "Brother Smithfield, a good old soul as ever lived, declares that he will take the paper when he sells his red steer. Gentle reader, do you know of anybody who wants to buy a steer?"

Mr. G. Evett Reardon, Commissioner of Deeds, Baltimore, Maryland, writes: "Having long been a great sufferer from severe rheumatism, which yielded to no treatment until I applied St. Jasobs Oil, the relief it has afforded is as gratifying as it is astonishing."

YOUNG MEN!—READ THIS.
