Benton County Judge Injured By Auto Blow

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — Victor Moses, 77, Benton County judge, suffered a compound fracture of his left leg when hit by a car near here Wednesday night.

He was walkin across Hihway 97, three miles north of here, going after medicine for his wife, when hit. The driver was Richard Cameron of Columbus, O.

Moses, still wearing bandages from a recent operation, was reported to be not in dangerous condition although the fracture was severe.

'One Day' Job Pays Off With Tidy Inheritance

CLEVELAND (AP) — Twenty-two years ago, when he was 18, Ronald W. Becker took a "one day" job. Now he has inherited $25,000 from a woman who kept him on that job all these years.

Becker had just lost his job in an automobile agency, and one of the agency's executives asked him if he wanted to drive for one day for a woman who had just bought a car.

That was how me met Mrs. Edith H. O. Hall, who died July 26 at the age of 79 in Charlevoix, Mich.

Mrs. Hall also left him $500 in bonds and the 1950 car he had been driving for her.
