THE MAINE ELECTION.

Maine is one of the few states, Oregon included, that holds her election for state and county officers on an earlier date than the presidential election. The Maine election will take place September 10 and the nearness of date to the presidential election usually causes the Republican national committee to take a conspicuous part therein, While Maine is safely and surely Republican any falling off from the usually large majority would be accepted as an indication that Republican voters were dissatisfied with the administration, and that the vote of the rest of the country would be deperded upon to follow the lead of Maine.

From now till September 10 the voters of this small and safely calculated Republican state will be assailed not only by a multitude of local Republican spellbinders but also by forty orators from all parts of the country, selected from the Republican national committee and booked to deliver no less than 700 speeches. On the other hand the Democratic campaign, as naturally would be expected where there is no hope of success, is of the perfunctory order. The Maine "straw" must be pointed.

A PERVERTER OF FACTS.

There was no war in the Philippines when Dewey came. There had been an insurrection—not for independence but for reforms. Spain overcame the rebellion, partly by fighting, partly by promising the reforms, and partly by bribing Aguinaldo and other leading "patriots," with heavy sums of money, to leave the islands.—Oregonian.

The Oregonian is an insistent perverter of facts. "When Dewey came" Spain had no foothold on the Philippine Islands, except that held in Manila and a few other fortified coast points, and those held by force of arms. The islands, practically, were as free from Spanish authority and control as were the thirteen colonies from British domination when the patriot colonials and their French allies cooped the British troops in New York and compelled peace and recognition of the truth ennunciated at Philadelphia, eight years before, that "these colonies are, and of right ought to be free and independent states."

Our $20,000,000 title to the Philippines from Spain is little, if any, better than any that could have been conveyed by Great Britain when New York was evacuated Spain had nothing to sell, could not give possession or valid title. She had been practically whipped out of the islands.

No one need be surprised if the Oregonian should claim that there is no war in the Philippines now—that the 65,000 American soldiers over there are merely doing police duty and taking sun-baths. There 'was war in the Philippines when Dewey came" for any Spaniard who dared place his foot on territory outside of fortified places or those commanded by guns of Spanish warships! There is war in the Philippines now for the American who puts himself outside of the protection of the army or fleet, notwithstanding the president's declaration that the islands are "pacified."

SHE WASN'T THERE

Mrs Justwed—I didn't accept Fred the first time he proposed.

Miss Cutting—I know you didn't.

Mrs Justwed—How do you know?

Miss Cutting—You weren't there.

The oldtime Methodist circuit riders are emulated by Bishop Morris of the Oregon diocese of the Episcopal church. His latest appointments cover Gardiner, Empire City, Marshfield, Bandon, Port Orford, Coquille City and Myrtle Point from August 24 to September 9. No small portion of that circuit must be made on mule back The coast section of the southwest part of the state mainly depends on saddle and water route conveyances.

PASSING THE GOOD THINGS ABOUT.

Portland will not get all the legislature clerkships the coming session of the state legislature, as in the past. The Kuykendall law provides:

"In the senate, the officers, except the president and the three pages, being 30 in number, shall be elected one from each senatorial district of the state, if there be a competent applicant from such district. In the house of representatives, the officers shall be elected from the various counties of the state, in the proportion that such county is represented in that body, so far as possible, provided there be competent applicants from the several counties."

AGAINST HIS COUSIN.

Preston H McKinley, a cousin of President McKinley, and a wealthy stock raiser of Freeport, Harper county, Kansas, according to an interview in the New York Journal, rejects the Republican ticket and declares his purpose to vote for Bryan and Stevenson. He says he would rather have the Prince of Wales president of the United States than his cousin. He said:

"In 1896 I worked and voted for McKinley for president. I thought he would make a better president than he has, but I find he caters too much to European style, which I and every other American do not like. I believe the Prince of Wales knows better how to conduct this republic than does my cousin. I should rather vote for him anyhow. McKinley and imperialism will defeat the Republican party at the polls this fall. I will vote for Bryan and Stevenson in order to help save the republic."

Umatilla county people are trying to escape their just share of state taxation. The assessment for this year shows a falling off of about $1,000,000, a seventh compared with last year. If Umatilla, with good crops, gets a reduction of one-seventh, Lane county is entitled to a one-half reduction. It is not probable, though, that the state board of equalization can be made to see it that way.

The German editors of Wisconsin have just closed a session of their editorial association. Two out of the twenty-five present made a lame apology for the Anglo-American alliance, imperialism, etc. The rest are all opposed, and each reported the Germans of his section as nearly solid for Bryan.

Indiana has a short grain crop, too, not exceeding 8,000,000 bushels against 25,000,000 to 40,000,000 for several years previous to 1899. Little more than enough grain for seeding was harvested.

Portland Telegram, August 20: Thirty-three Chinese, until lately the crew of the transport Argyll, were yesterday deported by the customs officials to Vancouver, B C. The new proprietor of the Argyll evidently does not care to employ Chinese, hence the deportation.

WILL RUN TO SALEM.

Steamer City of Eugene Will Again Go Into Commission.

Portland Telegram, August 20.

The Oregon City Transportation Co has secured the freak steamer City of Eugene and will operate her between Portland and Salem. The first trip will be made the latter part of the present week.

The City of Eugene has had a checkered career. She was built in the early part of 1899 at Eugene, by a syndicate. She was operated for a time with varying success, and was finally sold by the Unites States Marshal to satisfy a claim for wages due the crew. She was purchased by Olsen & Co, and later was sold to the Spaulding Logging Co. For several months she has been tied up at the levee.

The Robertson Raft Company's log raft arrived at San Francisco from the Columbia river in safety, but it is doubtful if the promoters will ever attempt it again. Telegrams from many points along the Coast state that logs have been repeatedly run into by ships, showing that they have been scattered far and wide over the ocean. The raft contained 12,000 logs or 1,000,000 feet of piling and was constructed in the form of a huge cigar. Another large raft is being constructed on Puget Sound with the intention of towing it to San Francisco.

"There are lawyers here" writes a Cape Nome correspondent "from all parts of the states. In one section of one street where it has been planked and offices built, there are 62 by actual count. There is lots of litigation, but many litigants are unable to pay, and I am afraid some of the claims are not worth fighting over."

Private John Woods, of New York, met Miss Helen Fitzfladden, of Pasadena, Calif., while on his way to the Philippine Islands. They became acquainted as many others did with the passing soldiers, kept up correspondence, and a few days ago were married.

The Roseburg Review has this about a former resident of Eugene: "Among other improvements at Starveout, Spence Miser, who owns quite an extensive area of placer ground, is putting in a grizzly and spending $2500 in getting ready to work his mine on a larger scale than ever before."

President Blanton's action to restrain the regents of the Idaho State University from releasing him has been dismissed by Judge Steele, at Lewiston. They engaged Blanton for three years, unless in their judgment, the interests of the university made it desirable to let him out.
