ARROW SAILS HIGH IN AIR

Baldwin's Airship Performs Feat Near New York.

NEW YORK, July 5.—George Stevens, at a near-by pleasure resort, has sailed J. H. Baldwin's airship, the California Arrow, 200 feet into the air, and after a trip skirted the ocean front for some distance and returned to the place of starting in safety.

While the airship was 100 feet above ground the long drag line which was trailing, caught in the electric wires. Stevens sent the airship ahead at full speed, the wires gave way, and released the dragline, permitting the airship to continue its trip. The propeller was slightly injured while the airship was going back to its port by hitting a projecting beam.

Stevens declared that he could easily navigate the California Arrow around the Borough of Brooklyn, a feat which he declared he will attempt within the next few days. He added:

"The ship was under my control from the time it left the aerodrome until I returned, and I had no difficulty in describing curves, descending or ascending while in the air."

No Place for Visitors to Sleep.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 5.—(Special.)—Several hundred people walked the streets or found hard comfort on the benches in Capitol Park last night, owing to the lack of accommodations for the unexpectedly large number of Fourth of July excursionists. A number of women were among those unable to secure rooms for the night.

"THE OLDEST TRUST COMPANY IN OREGON"

Resources Over $1,000,000

In February, 1903, a certain corporation took three of our Special Certificates of Deposit for $5000, payable upon ninety days' call, with interest at 4 per cent per annum. Thereafter, they took two more, making an aggregate of $25,000. These certificates were called in September and paid in December, 1903. The proceeds were used by the corporation to establish a branch house in Manila.
