AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6

"Come into my parlor," said the Spider House cities to the Democratic candidate.

Sioux City advocates peace, but it will get onto the "loaves and fishes" is willing to go to war.

Senator Burton is getting almost as "used to the courts" as Senator Smoot is to investigating committees.

In other words, Speaker Cannon says to his Ohio correspondent: "It will be a long time between tariff revisions."

But Mr. Carnegie, in his Tuskegee Institute speech, failed to suggest spelling reform in "negro dialect," and we are disappointed.

The rate bill advocates already see that even with the president's indorsement to back it, the "Long" amendment will be short of votes.

On his Western trip Secretary Shaw is said to have declared that he is aching to "just let out once." As soon as he gets back the president will no doubt see that his gag is still on straight.

Nobody seems to know the exact status of the vote in Chicago on the question of municipal ownership, but Mayor Dunne and his friends concede that "'twas a famous victory."

No more free transportation out of San Francisco. In four days the Southern Pacific took out 225,000 people on 789 trains, probably the greatest railroad transportation feat ever achieved.

Now we know that Dave Rose, of Milwaukee, really is a has-been, for he is going to Arizona to wait for a senatorship. One of the paying industries of Arizona is boarding ex-statesmen who want to be "on the ground" when the first senatorial election takes place.

It is reported that the children of Millionaire Grant, of San Francisco, are missing since the fire. It does not look as if it would make much difference to the parents, as they left their little ones in care of a governess and went over to Europe on a "pleasure" tour. Wealth is responsible for some curious things, but none more curious than the apparent stifling of parental affection. Man is the only one of God's creation that deserts his young. From being generally put at the head of the class he should take the foot, at least in many instances.

While W. R. Hearst is performing a public service by rolling together a series of evidences connecting with precision to the secret grant of franchises by the aldermen to the sugar trust, the United States attorney general of the United States is obliged to wait until he is in the power of the strongest men, they are the regular Democrats, in Indiana doing to make the people think there is a conflict. The people know there is a difference in name only—a difference of the same "one thing."

Dr. Dunn's [illegible] pan.

[illegible] macaroon toast will be served to the guests of the restaurant.

The best way to get anything is to go to headquarters and get it. We are headquarters for Schilling's best.
