KINCAID SELLS MORE PORTLAND REAL ESTATE

Gets $12,500 for Two Unimproved Lots Which He Has Owned 35 Years

E. R. Kincaid, of Eugene, sold this week to Louise Weinhard two unimproved lots, 7 and 8, in block 305, Portland, which he purchased in 1870 and had owned for more than 35 years, for $12,500 net. He also sold, last October to the Portland & Seattle Railroad Company the unimproved south half of block 145, Couch addition to Portland, which he also bought in 1870 and had owned for 35 years, for $6,000 net. The two lots sold to Louise Weinhard are at the corner of Taylor and Sixteenth streets, and the four lots sold to the railroad people for the Northern Pacific and Great Northern to enter Portland by way of the north bank of the Columbia river are bounded by Kearney street on the south, Tenth street on the east and Eleventh street on the west. Nearly all of the money realized from these sales was reinvested in improved Portland property—two lots at the corner of Everett and Ninth streets, near the custom house, containing several houses, and one lot at the corner of Yamhill and West Park streets, near the Portland Hotel, containing one large rooming house. Friday, April 20, he purchased 100 acres of the Jackson land joining the Kincaid ranch near Eugene for his son, Webster L. Kincaid.—State Journal.

Barbers' Prices

A New Location

Having moved my music store to Sixth street, one-half block west of Willamette, I recognize the fact that I will have to give inducements to have you go out of your way to find me. I am therefore going to give great reductions on the price of everything in the store, except on articles on which the price is fixed by the manufacturers. I have about 10,000 sheets of the late, copyrighted music in stock that you can have at 15 cents each. You will get about one-fourth off on the other goods, including pianos and organs.

Yours for business,

F. A. RANKIN.

Notice

As we are aiming to close out and do not care to prolong our business we ask our friends to call and settle their accounts and oblige

MURDERER SMITH STILL AT LIBERTY

Salem, Or., April 26.—Frank Smith, the escaped prisoner, murderer of Officer Hanlon, at Oregon City, was still at large at midnight. With a reward of $500 over his head, and crimes to his credit that are an open challenge to the officers of the law, he still continues to enjoy his liberty. Apparently the $500 reward does not look half so big as the woman the outlaw is carrying. It is evident that he is being given a pretty wide berth.

For all that could be learned up to midnight, the earth might as well have opened up and swallowed the fugitive. The Portland police, having captured the bandit's stat are resting. The Oregon City officials are beating around the bush in that neighborhood. At Canby, where a man supposed to be Smith robbed the postoffice, the authorities have returned from the hunt discouraged. If Smith is ever captured it will probably be by some one who has not been on the trail.

SPRING CATARRH

Holl's Drug Store Sells Hyomei Under Guarantee of Cure

The changeable weather of spring is directly responsible for the prevalence of catarrhal troubles in Eugene at the present time.

As a result, Holl's drug store has had a larger sale for Hoymei the past week than ever before in the years that it has handled this reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

If there is a single catarrhal germ in the system, Hyomei will search it out and absolutely destroy it, completely eradicating the trouble. The remedy has made so many cures among Holl's customers that he offers to pay for it if it does not benefit even the worst case of catarrh.

The complete outfit costs only $1, consisting of an inhaler, medicine dropper, and bottle of Hyomei, while extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. There will not be even this small expense if Hyomei does not cure, as Holl will return your money. a27 1t8
