MR. AND MRS. DONALD MANNING, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage June 14 at the First Presbyterian Church. The bride, Maxine Joiner, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Joiner of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard M. Manning of Melrose. (Picture by Chris of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

Miss Maxine Joiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Joiner of Roseburg, and Donald J. Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard M. Manning of Melrose, were married, June 14, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. Dr. James Millar performed the impressive candle-light ceremony in the presence of many guests.

Four large baskets of wild pink rhododendrons, and canlelabra holding white tapers formed the church decorations. Miss Lois Morgan, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Carol Manning, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Manning is a sister of the bridegroom.

The bride was lovely in an ice blue taffeta formal with net veil, held in place with tiny white flowers. She carrie a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds, outlined with blue net and white satin ribbon.

Miss Jeanette Joiner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Carol Lindbloom, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Marsha Wilson, niece of the bridegroom was flower - girl. The bride's attendants wore gowns of yellow eyelet embroidered organdy, and carried bouquets of pink carnations with blue net and blue satin ribbon.

Larry Campbell, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer. Larry Joiner, brother of the bride, was candle-lighter, and Ronald Groves was best man. The ushers were R. D. Manning and Dewight Morgan.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Shirley Goodwin.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The table was centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers. The three tier cake was decorated in white with pink rosebuds. Mrs. Ette Lindbloom, aunt of the bride, served the punch; Mrs. Winnifred Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jean Manning cut the cake, and Mrs. Jim Medford poured coffee.

A LOVELY JUNE WEDDING took place at the Glide Baptist Church Sunday, June 27, at 1 p.m. when Wilma Lea Argo became the bride of Jimmie Lee Bristol at a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Karl Faulkner under an arch of pink roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Argo of Glide and is a graduate of the 1954 class at Glide High School. Jimmie Bristol is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hornberger of Roseburg and also a 1954 graduate of Glide High School.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a blue satin gown fashioned entrain, form fitting with peplin and lace top. Her blue net fingertip veil was held with a rhinestone bandeau, and she carried a white Bible with white orchids.

Matron of honor to her sister, Mrs. John Wilcox, wore a semi-formal gown of yellow dotted swiss and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Marvin Gardiner and Miss Gloria Bergstrom, wore semi - formal gowns of pink dotted swiss and carried bouquets of sweet peas.

Best man was Don Bristol, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Marvin Gardiner and David Argo.

Mother of the bride wore a semi-formal gown of blue floral nylon, and the bridegroom's mother was gowned in a pink linen semi-formal. Both mothers wore corsages of sweet peas.

Preceding the ceremony, Tim Suhrstedt sang "Because You're Mine" and "Eternally" accompanied by Mrs. James S. Evans, who also played the traditional wedding march.

A reception was held in the Church parlors, the bride and bridegroom cutting the first piece of the tiered wedding cake which was served by Marvin Gardiner and Mrs Noel Argo. Mrs. Jess Bristol served the punch.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Bristol left by motor for Brighton, Colorado to make their home where the bridegroom will join his uncle in the operation of an electric appliance store.
