LOCAL WOMEN ENJOY INTERNATIONAL FLOWER SHOW IN CALIFORNIA

Minnie Easton and Mrs. L. E. Adams have returned to their homes on Fowler street after attending the international geranium society convention flower show held in Santa Barbara last weekend. There were members from New York, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Arizona, Washington, Oregon, California and England present. The organization has members from all over the world — England, Italy, Australia and one in Korea The Mar Monte Hotel served as headquarters for the convention. The show and business meeting were held in the Cabrillo Pavilion overlooking the ocean. The banquet was held Saturday evening in the Mar Monte Hotel with several noted speakers. O. E. Orcutt, 92-year-old horticulturist gave a talk at the banquet and Noble Gillespie, noted horticulturist, gave an interesting talk. Slides on geraniums around the world were shown by Phil Chandler of England. Slides included pictures of Henry VIII gardens, including geraniums, the Locks along the Thames, Buckingham Palace, Hampton Court, Anne Hathaway's Gardens, Shakespearean formal gardens and the Chelsea Flower Show.

Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Easton spent Monday in San Francisco, where they attended the cinnerama. Mrs. Adams also visited her aunt, Mrs. Rose Aylesworth, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris, in Summerland, before returning home. The trip was made by train.

CALAPOOIA WOMEN SET DINNER SUNDAY

The Calapooia Women's Club met at the clubhouse Wednesday. A potluck dinner was served at noon by Mrs. Pearl Hand and Mrs. Silvia Manning, hostesses. Places were set for 35 members and their guests. The business meeting was conducted by president, Dee Stephens. The special dinner committee, Hazel Haines, Norah Stephens and Frankie Moore, reported that the ham dinner Sunday was a big success, and the same ladies have offered to serve the next dinner which is planned for June 26. The proceeds of these dinners are to help pay for the new addition, which has just been built on to the clubhouse. The welfare committee reported that several boxes had been taken to a family whose home had been destroyed by fire, and that a $10 CARE package which the club sends each month was on its way to India.

The special guests at the day's dinner were, Mrs. Fraer of Merced, Calif., Mrs. Allen and baby, Mrs. Ray Buell and daughter from Roseburg; Mrs. Brandon of Kansas; and Mrs. Esselstrom of Umpqua. The next club meeting will be held July 20.

Arthur Godfrey Resigns Commander's Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Navy spokesman says Arthur Godfrey has resigned his Navy commander's commission because he feels he can serve all the armed forces by having no official tie with any of them.

The spokesman said Monday that was the reason given by the radio-television personality. Godfrey lost his Navy flying rating when he passed up the required periodical physical examination.

New York City Suburb's Phone Business Terrific

SCARSDALE, N. Y. (AP) — A church in this New York City suburb has been doing a terrific phone business lately. The reason —a device which plays a recorded one-minute prayer for those who phone.

The device was installed at the Hitchcock Memorial Church, a community congregation, on June 7. Since then parishioners have rung for the prayer on an average of 700 times daily, and at all hours. Prayers are changed twice each day
