An event of Sunday, June 26, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg was the double-ring, candlelight ceremony uniting Miss Charlene Louise Bentley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon T. Bentley, and Donald Burton McLain, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McLain, all of Roseburg.

Dr. James Millar performed the 2 p.m. ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. Baskets of white gladioli, white candelabra and white tapers formed the church decorations. Candlelighters were Judy Wood and Norma Nelson. The traditional wedding marches were played by organist, Mrs. Ruth Trued, who also accompanied Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw, who sang I Love Thee" by Grieg, and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a waltz-length white gown. The bodice of her gown was white lace over taffeta. The skirt was nylon net over taffeta. The scooped neck was edged with lace applique, held by seed pearls. Her bridal veil of nylon net with fitted lace crown was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. The bride's gown was designed and fashioned by the bridegroom's mother. The bride carried a white Bible, topped by a cascade bouquet of pink illusion carnations.

Miss LaDonna M. Parker, maid of honor, wore an aqua ballerina-length gown of nylon net over taffeta with silver tipped shirred ruffles. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Flower girl was Miss Debra Hammell, who wore a flowered dacron dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Dick Bentley, brother of the bride was ring bearer. Delbert McClain was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Bentley chose a flowered nylon jersey gown with matching jacket and blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a red rose corsage. Mrs. McClain wore a flowered dacron gown, red accessories and a white rose corsage for her son's wedding.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Reception arrangements and floral decorations were in charge of Mrs. Jack Chapman and Mrs. Alva Laws. The bride's table was covered with a blue organdy cloth, and decorated with white peonies. Mrs. Kenneth Taylor served the beautiful three-tiered cake. Mrs. Burdette Peterson poured coffee, and Miss Mary Bentley, sister of the bride, poured punch. Miss Alice Tammell and Miss Mary Sue Frazier assisted in serving. Miss Judy Wood presented the guest book, and Miss Norma Nelson presided over the gifts.

Following a trip to points of interest in California, the couple will be at home om River Street in Roseburg. The bride attended the local schools. The bridegroom graduated from the local high school and served four years with the U.S. Navy. He is presently employed at the State Industrial Motor Service.
