IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Dismembered Bodies of Men Belonging to Fifth Cavalry Recovered.

A Manila dispatch says that the bodies of the sergeant, two corporals and four privates of the Fifth cavalry, who were captured May 30 by ladrones at Binangonan, Risal province, Luzon, have been recovered. Most of the bodies were hewn limb from limb and it was found impossible to recognize four of the dead. The American soldiers were buried together. It was impossible to make separate interment. A number of arrests in the matter have been made, and nine men have been identified as belonging to the band of ladrones that captured the Americans. The identified men included two members of the police force at Teresa, Morong province.

Twenty-five members of a band of insurgents who were captured while fighting with General Lukban in Samar took the oath of allegiance to the United States and were subsequently released. They have sworn allegiance and have promised General Chaffee to give him all the assistance in their power in the work of maintaining the present peace conditions in Samar.

Henry Ide, the member of the Philippine commission who was assigned to the department of finance and justice, has received a petition from the printers in the employ of the government asking that their salaries be paid in gold or in some other established and non-fluctuating currency. In reply to this petition Mr. Ide said he thought that the conditions of which the printers complained would probably be relieved. The men are now paid in Mexican silver.

CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS.

Frank Wilson, who recently knocked down Wesley Griggs in Stockton, Cal., and robbed him of $3, was sentenced by Judge Jones to imprisonment in Folsom for life.

John Yeakey, a merchant and prominent citizen of Redding, Cal., was shot and killed by William Middleton, a young carpenter, who is in jail, and says that he shot Yeakey in self-defense. The shooting was the result of a quarrel about a girl named Cassie Clawson, with whom Yeakey had been associating. Yeakey was a married man, with three children.

By the blowing out of the main steam-pipe of the transport Meade at Folsom-street wharf, San Francisco, seven men employed in the engine-room were terribly scalded. George le Baron, machinist on the Meade, was so severely burned that he is not expected to survive his injuries.

De Wet Addresses the Boers.

Recent dispatches from South Africa give the total number of Boers who have surrendered as 16,500, and the British are extending every possible kindness to the men who come in. General Delarey surrendered at Lichtenberg with 800 men. The appearance of General De Wet at the Boer camp at Winburg was the signal for a display of great enthusiasm. He delivered a speech, in which he counseled his hearers to be loyal to the British government.

If you are going to visit the old home—your childhood's home, write A. D. Charlton, A. G. P. A., No. 255 Morrison street, Portland, Oregon, for low excursion rates named by the Northern Pacific to all points East.

Phoebe Bailey, 22 years old, who was visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. J. King, at Claremont, near Pomona, Cal., committed suicide by setting fire to her clothing in the sagebrush. The body, horribly burned, was found by two ranchers. She was a resident of Redding, and a daughter of E. L. Bailey. Some time ago she was an inmate of Napa insane asylum.

Henri Maurice Cannon, known as the heaviest man in the world, died suddenly from heart disease at his saloon, 1233 Market street, San Francisco. He weighed 613 pounds. Cannon was born in Zurich, Switzerland, 52 years ago, and was deemed there one of the foremost athletes, and as a wrestler met many men in the arena. It was not until ten years ago that he began to grow to abnormal proportions. He leaves a wife.

In the old days of heavy teaming the strongest and best team on the road carried the broom. The "North Coast Limited" on the Northern Pacific carries the broom among railway trains. It is the only electric lighted train operated in the Northwest and you can travel to the east on it as cheaply as any other train.

A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, at 255 Morrison street, corner of Third, will be glad to give you full information regarding rates, routes, etc., either in person or by letter.

ASHLAND IS READY.

CITY PROFUSELY DECORATED

With Gold and White, the Air of Cleanliness and Piety is Abroad and the Christian World is Ready for a Spiritual Blessing.

The long expected event of the year in the world of spirituality, moral and religious uplifting takes place in Ashland from tomorrow to Monday. The Oregon state convention of the Society of Christian Endeavor will bring to Ashland the grandest gathering of religious workers ever assembled here, save, perhaps, the M. E. church conference of two years ago. Something like 150 outside people devoted to the cause of uplifting humanity along moral and Christian principles will be blended with the hosts at home and the Cause of Christ and the Cross will produce a thorough awakening in this town.

The local unions have been prayerfully devoted to the convention and nothing but an unqualified success is expected.

Chairman H. L. McWilliams, of the Entertainment committee of the Board of Trade, appointed J. K. Van Sant, Elmer Patrick and Clarence Lane to notify the business houses to decorate.

The executive committee of local unions—T. F. Kershaw, chairman; Nellie Crocker, secretary; J. Syd. McNair, treasurer; Frank D. Robbins, finance; Nellie Crocker entertainment; Esther Silsby, music; Mabel Russel, decorations; J. Syd McNair, press—have done excellent work assisted by the following subcommittees:

Souvenir—Miss Leslie, Maud Barnes, Mrs. W. T. Coburn, Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, Lucinda Spencer, Mabel Galey. 250 handsome souvenir, heart shape, with a picture of Chautauqua building and blank pages for names, has been purchased with an inscription "Engrave your name upon my heart," etc.

Lunch—Rosa Dodge, Grace Howell, Mabel Galey, Miss Grubb, Mrs. Coburn, Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, Bertha Ruble, Eva Storey, Mrs. Van Sant, Mrs. O. Caldwell, Mrs. J. R Wick, Mrs. Coolidge. Lunch in Pioneer hall for 125 Endeavorers, Friday at 1 p. m.

Badges—Maud Patterson, Ethel Galey, Mrs. Chas. Hill. 250 badges have been made.

Entertainment—Nellie Crocker, Genevieve Tiffany, Olive Wing, Amy Caldwell, Rosa Patterson, Eva Storey, Bertha Ruble, Lola Bryant, Edith Crowson, Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Ray Hevener. They secured entertainment for 110 delegates.

MASKED STREET CARNIVAL.

And Ox Barbecue Dinner will be Features of Ashland's 4th of July Celebration.

At a meeting held in city hall Tuesday evening it was decided to celebrate the 4th of July in Ashland. All the celebrations heretofore have been undertaken on an elaborate scale, but the managers of this years' celebration have taken hold of it on a modest scale and will work up to the situation as far as the demands will warrant. A number of the old schemes of morning entertainment that have heretofore run into money rapidly will be cut out and the carnival feature will be developed and made much of.

As at present planned the morning will be observed by an oration from some first class speaker, and together with the musical exercises and reading of the Declaration of Independence, etc, will be the principal amusement.

At noon there will be a big free barbecue dinner in Chautauqua grove.

In the afternoon there will be a match game of baseball at the Athletic grounds.

At six o'clock the grand street carnival will be pulled off in a cloud of glory and hilarious fun

A grand ball at the opera house in the evening will close the day.

Other attractions will be added later on.

The executive committee in charge is as follows: G. L. Morris, E A Hildreth, F. C C Wood, A C. Gabriel and H L Sayles

The finance committee—D. L. Minkler, C E Lane and E. J. Kaiser—have secured ample encouragement

James F. Wheelock was hanged at San Quentin prison for the brutal murder of aged Mrs. Emily Martin at the town of Coutelene, Butte county, Cal. To the last the prisoner stoutly protested his innocence of the crime. He walked to the gallows with a firm step, and a fixed smile parted his lips until the black cap covered his face. Frank and Edward Martin, the two sons of the murdered woman, were present at the hanging. When Wheelock's life was declared extinct both men turned and shook hands with each other and expressed their satisfaction that the debt was paid.

United States Embassador Joseph H. Choate entertained at dinner King Edward and Queen Alexandra. There were also present Princess Victoria and many distinguished persons.

Extra Session.

On the fourth page of this issue we again reprint the form of petition to Gov T T. Geer asking for an extra session of the new Oregon legislature just previous to the regular session, for the special purpose of making the proposed changes in the salary law before the officials are sworn in, and to pass the needed legislation putting into practical working order the recently adopted constitutional amendment known as the initiative and referendum This special session is very necessary as the members of the legislature will be compelled to go on record on these matters without the customary excuses that are hedged about a regular session worked up and embroiled in a nasty senatorial contest.

It may even be just possible that the regular senatorial session may not do any business, or may refuse to organize. The caprice of a legislature in a senatorial contest is unfathomable.

Cut out this form of petition, circulate it in your neighborhood and forward to Gov. Geer. There are petitions of the same kind going up from other parts of the state and if the demand from the people is strong for an extra session Gov Geer will convene it. Governor-elect Chamberlain also endorses the idea.

Allen Halverson of west Prairie, Wis., says: "people come ten miles to buy Foley's Kidney Cure," while J. A. Spero of Hemer, Ind., says: "It is the medical wonder of the age."—T K Bolton.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The senate confirmed Clarence W. Ide as collector of customs, Puget sound district, and Benjamin D. Crocker to be collector of internal revenue, district of Washington.

President Roosevelt sent a message to congress urging reciprocity with the republic of Cuba. He pointedly declares that the proposition for a rebate is not acceptable, and intimates that reciprocity alone will meet the necessities of the case.

Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau has settled the contested question as to whether butter or any other ingredients artificially colored may be used in the manufacture of oleomargarine without increasing the tax from one-quarter of a cent to 10 cents a pound by issuing a regulation which holds in effect that no artificial coloring matter can be used in any way in the manufacture of oleomargarine without increasing the tax as stated.

The Boers generally hold an unfavorable opinion of their foreign allies, except the Americans, whom they declare to be crafty and great fighters, says a Pretoria dispatch. A prominent commandant said, "All the Germans are fit for is to give horses sore backs."

Fire destroyed the Novelty leather factory of M. Rosenblatt & Co. at Second and Oxford streets, Philadelphia, and resulted in severe injuries to a dozen persons. Many other buildings were damaged. There were many narrow escapes, most of the 400 men and women employed in the factory saving their lives by leaping from the windows into nets held by firemen. The damage is estimated at $300,000.

Eddie Guerin and George Miller of Chicago were sentenced in Paris to life imprisonment at penal servitude, and May Churchill, known as "Chicago May," was sentenced to five years' imprisonment. When the sentence was pronounced May Churchill threw her arms around Guerin's neck and kissed him passionately. The guard separated them and led the prisoners away. Guerin and Miller were charged with having entered the office of the American Express company in Paris during the night of April 26, 1901, and with stealing 80,000 francs ($6,000). The Churchill woman was accused of being their accomplice.

C. F. W. Neely, who, on March 24, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $56,701 for complicity in the Cuban postal frauds, was released under the bill signed by President Palma, granting amnesty to all Americans convicted of crimes in Cuba during the term of American occupation and those awaiting trial.

Colonel Arthur Lynch, formerly of the Boer army, was arrested in England on his arrival from Paris, and later appeared in the Bow-street police court, London, charged with high treason. Lynch, who was born in Australia, was elected member of parliament for Galway, Ireland, in November last. The case for the prosecution is that on arriving in South Africa in 1900 he took service with the Transvaal government, raised a regiment, of which he acted as commander, to fight in behalf of the Boers, and actively fought against General Buller's operations. The case was remanded till June 21.

The naval bill, carrying more than $78,000,000, was passed by the senate. It includes two first-class battleships, two first-class armored cruisers and two gunboats, but strikes out the house provision that one of each shall be built at government yards. When the isthmian canal question came up Turner delivered a speech in favor of the Nicaragua route.

The house began debate on the Pacific cable bill. Corliss said he was opposed to the cable's being owned by a private company, and argued in favor of the government's owning, constructing and operating the cable.

Wednesday.

The senate agreed to vote finally on the Nicaragua bill and all pending amendments on June 19. After a sharp debate, a motion to discharge the committee on privileges and elections from further consideration of the resolution providing for the submission of an amendment to the constitution for the election of United States senators by the people was defeated, 21 to 35.

The house dispatched the Corliss Pacific cable bill by striking out the enacting clause of the measure by a vote of 116 to 77. The field is thus left clear to the Commercial Cable company, of which John W. Mackay is president.

Thursday.

In the senate Morgan of Alabama spoke in favor of the Nicaragua route for an isthmian canal, discussing particularly the diplomatic phases of the question.

The house devoted the day to general debate of the irrigation bill. Tongue of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada and others spoke in favor of the bill, while Gray of New York opposed the measure, and said it would benefit certain states at the expense of others.

Friday.

The senate spent nearly the entire day in considering the nomination of Captain William Crozier to be chief of the bureau of ordnance, with the rank of brigadier-general. No conclusion was reached on the question. Crozier's confirmation is generally conceded by his opponets.

The house passed the irrigation bill by a vote of 146 to 55. The bill has already passed the senate. The friends of the measure greeted the announcement with a round of applause.

Saturday.

The house amendments to the irrigation bill were agreed to by the senate and the measure was passed. Elkins of West Virginia introduced a joint resolution providing for the annexation of Cuba and its admission as a state of the Union. The resolution, at the suggestion of Elkins, was allowed to lie on the table. The Nicaragua canal bill was before the senate for a short time, Morgan of Alabama speaking in support of the measure.

In the house Hay of Virginia called up the resolution calling for information as to the cost of the war in the Philippines. By a party vote of 91 to 63, a motion to lay on the table was carried.

Monday.

The senate passed the London dock charges bill, which provides that the master, agent or owner of any vessel transporting goods from the United States to foreign ports shall be held responsible for loss or damage. Consideration of the isthmian canal project was then continued.

The house adopted a resolution appropriating $25,000 for the preparation of plans for a memorial in Washington to Abraham Lincoln, and $110,000 for the erection of a monument to heroes of the revolutionary war. The resolution adopted was to carry out an authorization made for this purpose in 1777 by the continental congress
