Pro Football Stirs Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Football League exhibition schedule gets up a full head of steam this weekend with five games listed.

The top clash probably will be between the champion Cleveland Browns, who already have had one outing, and the San Francisco 49'ers Sunday in San Francisco.

The Browns, who stampeded the college all-stars in their first start of the season last week, will be favored. They appear further advanced in their training than other NFL teams.

Other action puts Detroit against Pittsburgh at Toledo and Los Angeles against Washington in Los Angeles, both on Friday, and the Chicago Cardinals against the Chicago Bears at Jacksonville, Fla., and Philadelphia against Green Bay at Milwaukee, both on Saturday.

Baltimore and Los Angeles made auspicious debuts last Saturday night. The Colts, with George Shaw tossing two touchdown passes, whipped Philadelphia, 28-10, and the Rams rode over Fort Ord, 42-7.

Hugh Devore made his debut as Eagles' coach and found his team couldn't hold onto a 13-10 halftime lead. The Colts struck for 18 points in the last period and served it up.

The Los Angeles team actually played against three service outfits. Fort Ord played the second and fourth quarters and threw up stiff opposition. But the Camp the first period, gave up 21 points, and the San Diego Navy eleven, which handled the third chapter, yielded 27 points.

Yakima, in a manner of speaking, sits the next dance out, and glad the Bears are for the chance to pick up and brush off their dusty Northwest League crown.

The battered and bewildered Bruins were left Monday with a mere one-half game lead over second-place Salem after the Senators blitzed the Bears, 5-1, in a four-game weekend series.

The Senators, relying on the powerful bat of Chuck Essegian, smashed the Bears twice Sunday, 19-4 and 18-13. Salem moves into Eugene Monday night for a series opener while the Bears get a chance to collect their wits.

In other bargain bills Sunday, Wenatchee's Chiefs took the measure of Lewiston twice, 4-0 and 7-5, and Eugene double noxed Spokane, 7-1 and 4-1. Tri-City was idle.

Soap Bob Derby Title Awarded To New York Boy

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A Rochester, N.Y., entrant, for the second year in a row, is the all-American Soap Box Derby champ.

Norman Westfall, 14-year-old Gates High School sophomore who likes to paint neighbors' automobiles and tinker with his cars, triumphed Sunday afternoon over a field of 155 at Derby Downs before a record crowd of 45,000.

Watching him roll his avenger courtesy racer down the 953-foot stage in 27.42 seconds in the championship heat was Richard Ruhrer of Rochester, winner last year.

For his victory, Westfall earned a $5,000 scholarship which he said he would use to study engineering at the University of Rochester.

C. Landon Flake of Daytona Beach, Fla., came in second, and Wayne David Ford of Long Beach, Calif., was another quarter-length back in third. Flake's prize is a $4,000 scholarship, and Ford's a $3,000 one.

William C. King of Martins Ferry, Ohio, won a $2,000 scholarship for fourth, and Herman Neff Jr., of Logansport, Ind., a $1,000 scholarship for fifth.

Westfall's racer was damaged in shipment, and he missed lunch Friday working eight hours to repair its smashed nose and replace a damaged left rear wheel. He had improved the steering of his 1956 vehicle and put stress on streamlining, including application of 20 coats of paint to cut wind resistance.

Albany Dominates Junior Baseball

BEND (AP) — Albany continued its domination of the state Junior League baseball championships Sunday by defeating Salem, 12-4, in the sixth annual title game. Albany beat Salem for last year's championship and has won the title four of the six years.

Fred Morton topped Albany's batting attack with three hits in five trips, including a double and a triple. Salem's Neil Darling had two for four. Nine Salem errors aided Albany's victory.

In the consolation round, Thurston, Ore., defeated Grants Pass, also 12-4, to capture third place. In Saturday night's semi-finals Albany shut out Thurston, 3-0 and Salem pounded Grants Pass, 12-4.

Manager Fred Hanes of the Milwaukee Braves played third base for the Detroit Tigers from 1922 through 1925 and with the Boston Red Sox in 1926 and 1927.

Eddie Machen, Redding, Calif., heavyweight who has knocked out Nino Valdes, scored knockouts in his first 10 professional battles. His bout with Valdes was his 15th.

YMCA League Playoffs Set

The annual YMCA Church League championship playoffs are scheduled to get under way Tuesday night at the Fairgrounds Field.

All seven members of the league are slated for action in the four day show. Tuesday's session calls for Lookingglass against Church of God at 6:30 and Riverdale playing CMA in the second portion of the double-bill at 8.

Faith Lutheran will battle North Roseburg at 8 p.m. Thursday and Sutherlin Christian will draw the first round bye.

The winners of the first round will go against each other in a double-header set for Friday and the two winners will play for the League championship on the following Monday.

Lookingglass Church won the regular league championship when it went through the season without a single setback. Riverdale took second.

Ludde, Troy Fight Monday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Monday show from St. Nicholas arena in New York has the airwaves all to itself this week with the Wednesday and Friday fights shut down because of conflict with the political convention at Chicago.

Jerry Luedke of New Haven and Willie Troy of Washington, D.C., are scheduled in a 10-round middleweight battle to be seen on TV in some sections of the country. Troy beat Luedke on a split decision, July 30.

The first match was scored as close as possible without being a draw. Judge Frank Fullam had it 5-4 in rounds with the points even. Referee Dave Fold had it 5-3 in rounds but gave Troy an 8-6 edge in points. Judge Leo Birnbaum scored it for Troy 6-4.

Eddie Machen will try to stretch his unbeaten streak to 16 Thursday at Portland, Ore., against Walter Bates, Washington veteran. Machen knocked out Nino Valdes in his last previous start.

Ranked among the top 10 heavyweights at the age of 26, Machen, of Redding, Calif., is regarded by many as the best prospect in the division.

Oakland, Myrtle Creek Set Game Tonight

The Oakland Galettes and Myrtle Creek will play each other at the Fairgrounds Field today in the Lane Timberettes League, women's softball contest. The game is set for 6:30 p.m.

Oakland was scheduled to play at its home field but has consented to play on the neutral Roseburg field to save travel time and expense to both teams.

Oakland and Yoncalla are tied for the league leadership with Myrtle and Myrtle Creek a third, however, the lone loss suffered by the Galettes has come at the hands of Myrtle Creek in their first meeting.

Janice Easley will take to the mound for Oakland and she will be opposed by Myrtle Creek's Margarita Rome.

Small Boat Safety Aim Of Congress Hearings

ASTORIA (AP) — Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) announced here he has been appointed to a House subcommittee to study proposed legislation to improve small boat safety.

The first hearings will be held in Astoria Aug. 30, to be followed by hearings at Tacoma, Seattle, and California ports.

Norblad said he suggested that such a study be made after the drownings at Astoria last year during that city's fish derby.

The full committee, Norblad said, was tentatively agreed that the next Congress should pass legislation to require certain safety measures in small boats, and that the Coast Guard should be given authority to enforce them.

American Bowling Congress records show that there are 7,188 bowling establishments in 48 states.

Drain Black Sox Win Two From Coastal Lumberjacks

SOUTHERN OREGON LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct.
Medford	14	7	.667
Drain	16	10	.583
Coos Bay-N. Bend	9	12	.429
Coquille	9	12	.429
Bend	8	13	.381

The Drain Black Sox dropped the Coos Bay - North Bend Lumberjacks baseball team two out of three games over the weekend to keep alive any possible chance for a first place tie with the front running Medford Cheney Shoes, for the No. 1 position of the Southern Oregon baseball title.

The Lumberjacks won the initial game of the series played Friday night at the coastal city 5-3. Drain came back to win game number two Saturday night 8, Drain 12-4 and won the series final at Coos Bay Sunday afternoon 7-3, behind the six-hit hurling of youthful Jack Riley.

The double win for the team assures it of no worse than a second place finish, and could possibly end the season in a first place deadlock with the Red nine, should they lose their final three games to be played against Coquille this coming weekend.

Drain concluded SOL play Sunday afternoon, but will play a double-header against the potent McMinnville Townies in the walnut city in a return engagement scheduled for three games.

The Lumberjack nine won the first game of the set Friday when Tom Hunt pounded out a triple to right center, in the bottom of the eighth to chase the tie-breaking and winning runs across the plate.

The teams were in a deadlock up to the time of the timely blow by Hunt. Drain scored single counters in the first, third and eighth.

The Lumberjack nine had taken an early lead with two in the first and a single in the second. The first two runs were sent across on a double off the bat of Jim Pieper.

Jerry Barlow was the winning pitcher, although he was outpitched on the mound by Drain's Bill Crane. Crane gave up five hits over the route, but two came at very opportune moments.

Drain won the Saturday game at the Black Sox home field. They utilized 16 hits to score 12 big runs, three in the first, three more in the third, two in the fourth, one in the sixth and a final three in the eighth.

North Bend countered with three in the initial frame, one in the third and two additional runs in the fifth.

Third baseman Ray Stratton and Norm Welch were the big sticks in the Sox hitting attack. Stratton collected a single, double, triple and homerun to complete the cycle while Welch was pounding out a perfect 4-4 for the night's efforts.

Stratton hit his homer in the sixth for the lone Black Sox score of the frame.

Noel Aronson and Dick Duerr continued to hurl the win. Dave Lane and Joe Bonneau pitched for the losers. Aronson was the winner and Lane the loser.

The Sunday tussle had the winners dealing the plate with three runs in the third and four big counters in the fourth. Stratton again was the big man with the willow as he blasted out a grand-slammer in the four-run fourth. He also drove across one in the third for a total of 5 RBI's for the day.

Coos Bay-North Bend hit for two runs in the sixth on a two-run circuit smash off the bat of Lloyd Lewis, and added its final score in the ninth.

Riley, the teenage pitching whiz from Portland, hurled the final game and was in little trouble, except for the final inning. Up to this time he had allowed six hits, but in the ninth, he lost control momentarily and gave up three consecutive walks. The lone run of the frame came home on a fielder's choice. Riley got the next two batters of the inning on infield pop-ups.

Clayton Smith, Brad Lucas and Gary Hargens, all took their turn on the mound in trying to stop the big bats of the Black Sox. Starting pitcher Smith was tagged with the loss.

Ad Rutschman joined Stratton in the hitting parade by collecting four singles in five trips to the plate.

Other Southern Oregon League action over the weekend between Bend and Coquille played at the hitters home field saw the visitors copping two of the three contests.

Bend won the Friday night game 15-4 and came back in the Saturday tussle for a narrow 1-0 victory. Coquille salvaged the Sunday final 7-6.

The Saturday contest was a thrilling pitching battle between Bend's Lowell Pearce and Coquille's Gene Stafford. Pearce fashioned a two-hitter and Stafford was handed the defeat after pitching a one-hit job.

Southern Oregon League play will conclude next weekend with two sessions on the docket. Coquille will play three games at Medford and the Lumberjacks will travel over the mountain for three against Bend's Loggers.

Portland lost both ends of a Pacific Coast League doubleheader with San Diego Sunday—4-4 and 10-4.

The Padres put together a 16-hit attack in the opener while relief pitcher Bob Greenwood held down the Beaver batters. Harry Elliott homered for the winners in the seventh with one man on base.

The Beavers staged a rally in the second game, highlight of which was Bob Borkowski's two-run homer in the last of the seventh.

Jack Littrell had a homer for Portland and Clarence Moore put one over the wall for the Padres in the second game.

Bob Darnell started for the Beavers in the opener but was relieved in the eighth inning by Alex Kaminsky. Five Portland pitchers played in the second game.

Meanwhile, Los Angeles all but clinched the PCL pennant by sweeping a doubleheader with Sacramento while the slumping second place Seattle Suds were losing twice to tail-end Vancouver.

That put the Angels 12½ games ahead with only 19 to play.

League stickmen gather Monday night at Portland for the annual All-Star game between the North and the South. Sacramento's Gene Bearden is to be the North's starting pitcher against Dave Hillman of Los Angeles.

The South, which includes Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego and Hollywood, holds a 7-4 edge over the North.

Los Angeles trimmed Sacramento, 4-1 and 7-1, as Steve Bilko belted his 47th homer and Gene Fodge pitched his ninth straight victory.

The Angels outhit Sacramento, 12-8, in the opener in which Al Heist of the Solons hit a homer.

Bilko, who had missed two games because of illness, connected with a man on base in the nightcap. Helping Fodge run his season record to 15-4, the Angels batted around for four runs in the third inning.

Seattle, which has won only once in the past nine starts, was beaten 15-7 and 9-2.

Vancouver collected 19 hits in the first game, including a homer by Jim Westlake. Bob Balcena and Carmen Mauro connected for the losers.

Five of the Mounties' first game runs came in the ninth inning on two singles, three doubles and Ron Jackson's triple.

Pitcher Charlie Beamon's homer, after Jim Bevens had bunted safely, won the nightcap for Vancouver. The other Mounties run came in the first inning on a pair of singles and an infield out.

Seattle scored its two runs on Pat Scantlebury's triple, Balcena's double and singles by Vern Stephens and Mauro.

San Diego beat Portland, 8-4 and 10-4, and Hollywood plunged San Francisco, 6-0 and 5-1.

Roseburg Teams Lead Trapshoot

Roseburg teams are placed 2-2 after the first four weeks of Buckeye League trapshooting among rod and gun clubs at Roseburg, Yoncalla and Cottage Grove.

There still are five rounds to shoot.

Ted Rice and Bill Jones have smashed 198 out of 200 birds for first place. They are members of the Roseburg Rod & Gun Club. Jerry Milligan and Bert Dompier, also of Roseburg, hold down second with 193 pigeons smacked down.

The Keith Roberts-A. B. Baker duo of Cottage Grove is third with 191, and two Cottage Grove teams are tied for fourth at 188. They are Darrell Ledford and Dale McMullen, and Jim Hendricks and Fred Boles.

Last week, 38 shooters participated in the fourth round at the Roseburg Rod & Gun Club at Winchester. The next shoot will be at Cottage Grove next Friday.

Marilyn Bell Plans Swim Try Again

VICTORIA, B. C. (AP) — Marilyn Bell will make another attempt to swim the Strait of Juan de Fuca, possibly Monday if weather conditions permit.

The young Toronto swimmer, defeated after nine hours and 39 minutes in the 16.5-mile-wide channel Friday, said Saturday she will make at least one more attempt.

Marilyn, apparently recovered from her ordeal, said in an interview: "Of course, I will try again. That was understood from the start."

She was dragged from the water Friday afternoon in a state of exhaustion when within 2½ miles of her destination, Port Angeles, Wash.

Marilyn earned $20,000 for her effort and stands to pick up another $10,000 if successful the second time. She would have received the extra $10,000 if she had finished Friday.

Ward Wetzlauffer, Buffalo, N.Y., with a 290 total and Jamie Richardson, Columbus, Ohio, with a 309 won the men's and women's amateur division, respectively, in the Tam O'Shanter "world championships."

TENNIS

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. — Sam Richardson, Westfield, N.J., vanquished Neale Fraser, Australia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2, to win the men's singles championship and Althea Gibson, New York, defeated Louise Brough, Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-1, 6-3, for the women's singles title in the Eastern Grass Court Championships.

Eugene, Oregon City Win Softball Bouts

MILL CITY (AP) — Eugene and Oregon City each gained second round victories in Sunday action at the state men's softball tournament. Eugene blanked Springfield 6-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Bob Willis and Oregon City edged the host Mill City club 2-1.

In the losers bracket, Salem eliminated Corvallis 5-0 in eight innings and Klamath Falls defeated Sheridan, 6-2.

The winner of the five-day playoff will represent Oregon in the regional journey to be played at Seattle later this month.

Portland also will have an entry in the regional tournament.

If the Boston Red Sox fail in their drive to overtake the American League - leading New York Yankees, as it now seems likely, they can blame it on the Washington Senators.

The lowly Nats, waging a season-long struggle to stay out of the cellar, have been plain poison to the Red Sox. On the other hand, they have been little more than a doormat for the Yankees.

They have won 9 of 13 games with Boston, the best record of any team against the Red Sox. In sharp contrast, they've won only 3 of 16 with the Yankees. There is your reason why the Yankees today were in first place, 10 games in front of the third-place Red Sox.

While New York was increasing its margin over runner-up Cleveland to 9½ games yesterday by sweeping a double-header from Baltimore 8-2 and 4-2, Washington was whipping the Red Sox 8-2. The Indians widened their lead over Boston to a game and a half by defeating Kansas City 6-2. Detroit thrashed Chicago 9-2.

In the National, Milwaukee maintained its 1½-game lead on Brooklyn by overpowering Cincinnati 8-2 as the Dodgers were beating Robin Roberts and Philadelphia 7-2.

Pittsburgh whipped the Giants 9-2 and 13-5 while Chicago played a scoreless nine-inning tie with St. Louis after defeating the Cardinals 6-2. Duckness hurled the second game.

Outfielders Jim Lemon and Roy Sievers, who have been hitting practically everything Boston pitchers have thrown at them this year, were the offenders again as Washington knocked starter Willard Nixon out of the box in the first inning.

Lemon blasted his fourth home run in the three-game series with Boston and drove in two runs. Sievers collected three singles and drove in a run.

The Yankees' one - two punch of Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra did it again. Mantle smashed his 41st home run and drove in three runs in the opener as Don Larsen went the route for his seventh victory. Berra's two - run triple proved the difference in the second game.

Herb Score struck out 14 for his fifth victory. Bobby Avila, Rocky Colavito and Al Smith homered for the Indians.
