A Late Business Call.

"Curious what men will do when they're drinking," said Representative "Tim" Sullivan. "In New York I heard a story about a man I know who had been out nearly all night, and was considerably the worse for wear.

"He came along the street and saw an undertaker's sign, with a night bell just over a speaking tube. He rang the bell fiercely.

"'What is it?' yelled the undertaker down the tube. 'What do you want?'

"'Nothing in particular,' the chap replied: 'only I want to say to you that you're the last man I'll do business with.'"—Chicago Ledger.

When She Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, stengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Burns Drug stores.

Has Herd of Elk.

Probably the only domesticated herd of elk in the Inland Empire browses on the ranch of Wm. P. Reser, democratic state senator from this county, two and a half miles southeast of town, says a Walla Walla dispatch. There are 14 animals in the bunch, all sufficiently tame to allow strangers to come within 50 yards of them.

This is horn shedding time among the bull elk, and when The Spokesman-Review correspondent visited the field recently a fine pair of horns, shed a short time before by a stately looking animal, were lying in the grass. The two horns had been dropped about 100 yards apart and were undamaged. It is said the elk nibble the cast off product until they are destroyed, if left any length of time. One big beast still wore a tall pair of antlers and stood on the hillside like a sentinel, ready to give warning if too near an approach was made.

Mr. Reser has had an elk herd for 23 years. He obtained the first animals from Oregon. An elk lives about as long as a cow, and its mode of living is about the same. Senator Reser keeps the herd in a pasture behind his barns, where there is plenty of water and a fair sized range.

A party of government surveyors, in charge of C. H. Semper, arrived in the city Saturday to take up and finish the work abandoned here last fall when the wet weather set in. In the party are W. A. Monroe, Fred McCarl. R. W. Watkins and M D. St. John. The crew is running a base line from Ontario to Astoria and the work was completed last fall up to a point about seventeen miles east of the city.—Prineville Journal.

who can not stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pills, and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by Burns Drug stores.

A Great Newspaper.

The Sunday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The orginization of its news services is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper.

The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic.

The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.
