POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for commissioner of Harney county, subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906.

J. R. Jenkins.

I submit my name as a candidate for county commissioner on the Democratic ticket and pledge myself if elected to fill the office to the best of my ability. My long residence in Harney County has given me an intimate knowledge of the needs of its growing population and developing resources and I will at all times strive to act with the idea in view of subordinating personal interests to public good. As a member of the county court I would try to make my position known on all subjects before that by my recorded action at all times.

Jasper Davis.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for the office of county judge of Harney County, Oregon; subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primary election to be held on the 20th day of April 1906.

Should I receive such nomination I promise to make a vigorous, and honorable campaign and

If elected will qualify and pledge myself to give the office my very best attention at all times and will always favor managing the affairs of the county upon purely business principles at all times hewing to the line letting the chips fall where they may.

Without casting any reflections on others, I believe it in the interest of economy and good roads to divide the county into smaller road districts and will if elected favor a division of road district Number 1 so as to include Drewsey and Pine Creek precincts in one road district.

I am in favor of good roads safe bridges and in contracting wherever possible all work and construction thereon, all contracts to be let to the lowest bidder offering a good and sufficient bond; but believing we have competent builders in this county would favor home bidders where possible.

Geo. Fry.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for comissioner of Harney county, subject to the decision of the democrat voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906

L. N. Stallard.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Judge of Harney County, Ore, subject to the choice of the voters at the democratic primary—April 20, 1906.

If elected I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office impartially, aiming to give the whole people a "square deal". Conducting myself as a servant of the people and not a tool of any faction. I will give constant attention to the duties of the office; being ever ready transact the daily routine of business and will not be "out of town," when business of such nature is to be transacted before me. I will conduct the business of this office as economically as, may be consistent with the efficient and practical administration of County affairs, looking always to the welfare and best interests of the people.

Geo. D. Hagey.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for judge of Harney county subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906.
