DRAGNET

Today's cases are taken from the authentic files of Bill Stock Motors Sales. The story you are about to read is true. Only the appearances and figures have been changed to show a profit to you.

10:59 AM
After a duel of 45 caliber words and figures this immaculate 1955 HUDSON HORNET CUSTOM V-8 4 door was taken in. Information as to the automatic transmission, radio and heater, power brakes was furnished by an undercover agent.
Bail Set at $1895

11:06 AM
Routine case. Patrolman Finch picked up this slicker of a 1949 PONTIAC 2 DOOR for loitering to near Stephens & Sykes Streets. Included in the booking was radio and heater, automatic transmission and nearly new tires.
Bail Set at $295

12:30 PM
After stalking this tough customer for one month and 6 days he surrendered a 1955 PONTIAC 870 4 door sedan to Patrolman Baldridge for conditioning. Accessories of radio and heater, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes were enough to furnish Top Value.
Bail Set at $1695

1:00 PM
This purring, soft stepping 1952 CHEVROLET 4 DOOR was demon of the highway until captured north of the city after costly chase. Booked for having the motor rebuilt, new paint and new seat covers.
Bail Set at $595

2:29 PM
This character with sharp features, a 1955 OLDS SUPER "88" Deluxe Hardtop with radio, heater, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes was caught in the act of looking over our stock of new DeSotos and Plymouths and was charged with a new car sale. For his co-operation in helping to land another prospect the judge let him off easy.
Bail Set at $2395

ATTENTION ALL USED CAR-PROSPECTS
