In a few weeks the Oregon volunteers will be home, and with their coming many hearts will be made glad, while others will be turned to mourning. Only one short year ago over one thousand of Oregon's promising young men marched away to fight for the honor of their country. Many have give up their lives in the performance of their duty, some on the field of battle, but more by disease. Those who return will make glad the hearts that await their coming, while their presence will only cause deeper grief to those near and dear to the unfortunate ones who gave up their lives in that far away land.

The Albany city council has passed the much discussed license tax ordinance by a vote of four to two. It provides for taxing all kinds of trades, professions and business. So general is the sentiment against the law, says the Democrat, that only three business men refused to sign the remonstrance which was presented to the council. Albany is so deeply in debt, however, that something has got to be done to raise more revenue to pay off interest.

Seven years ago the people of Tillamook county turned their attention to dairying. Since that time more than a dozen creameries have been successfully established in the county. In the year 1898 these creameries turned out 17,347 pounds of butter and 91,931 pounds of cheese which netted the farmers patronizing these caeameries, $18,614.

The Boston millionaire who boasts that he is the man who has been sending documents to the Philippines urging our soldiers to mutiny in the face of the enemy must be badly off for something to brag about.

It seems impossible to kill the Oregon boys in the Philippine war. One of the Pendleton boys was hit in a pocket, where he had a lot of cartridges. The bullet struck a cartridge and glanced off doing no damage.

Secretary of War Alger officially denies the absurd story that American officers in the Philippines ordered rebel prisoners killed. They didn't even go so far as to feed them on our "patent" army beef.

If the Philippine war ends now it will have lasted just long enough to show that under any and all circumstances and conditions the American soldier is the fighter of the age.

The new barber law is to be tested in Portland a barber there refusing to respect it is to be prosecuted and shown what is what.

Bids for 3,500 cords of big fir wood for the insane asylum were opened Monday and ranged from $2.25 to $2.75. As the responses covered only 3,115 cords all were accepted.

The Santiam country is reaching out for the market of the valley in wood, and will now attack the capital itself. Local wood producers around Salem are therefore somewhat disturbed.—Democrat.

The Monroe colony will make the riffle all right. Monday Rev. Walsace made the initial payment of $10,000 according to contract, and the colony will take charge immediately and push their interests there.

Sheriff Munkersleft for Prineville Monday, where he will take into custody Chas. Slaven, indicted by the last grand jury for cattle stealing, he having been arrested by Crook county officers. He is also wanted on the charge of stealing a saddle near Lebanon.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Roseville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Peery & Peery.

A young lady in Kansas has petitioned the legislature of that state to change her name which is now Ima Hellpopper. This calls to mind ex-Governor Hogg of Texas, who christened his three daughters Ima Hogg, Ura Hogg and Bea Hogg respectively. A lately arrived son has been christened More Hogg, while many of the papers of the Lone Star state declare that he will have his name changed to Adam Hogg.

Spain has been notified, through the French Ambassador that the $20,000,000 called for by the treaty of Peace, will be paid on demand in New York, in U. S. gold coin, or in gold bars, as may be preferred. This is anticipatory, as this government has the right, under the treaty to defer the payment until six months after the date of the exchange of copies of the treaty.

The wheat brokers are advising their customers to buy wheat for June and July delivery as they say the indications are that the price will advance. Should this be true someone will kick themselves for not buying options on wheat and thus double their investment.

Russell Sage is carrying his prudence entirely too far. He not only refrains from riding on his own street railway, but refuses to fix it up so other people can ride on it with safety.

No one can truthfully says that the United States Government is not liberal in its contribution of $3,000,-000 to pay for the kind of soldiering performed by the Home Guards of Cuba.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him but after given him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by Peery & Peery.

The omission of wine from the bill of fare of the last Bryan banquet is clearly a bid for the Prohibition vote in the next campaign. From this straw it is surmissed that Col. Bryan expects to win without the help of Kentucky.—Ex.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicinces for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. Grisham, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by Peery & Peery.

Illinois now outranks Ohio in population, but the latter state far surpasses the former in its number of eligibles whenever a vacancy is imminent.
