Sauces You Never Forget

Certain hotels have a country-wide reputation for their wonderful meals. It is usually in the preparation of some famous sauce that a chef gains his reputation. There is hardly a chef of repute who would be without KITCHEN BOUQUET. Try this mushroom sauce:

MUSHROOM SAUCE

1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet
4 tablespoons flour
salt, pepper, paprika
4 tablespoons butter
½ cup cream
½ cups stock
½ dried mushrooms, cut fine and soaked 15 minutes in stock

Melt butter in saucepan, add flour, cook 2 minutes, add stock with mushrooms and cook 10 minutes, stirring often; add cream, Kitchen Bouquet and seasonings. Bring to boiling point and serve over broiled steak.

Then you will know why chefs regard so highly

CITY LOTS WITH DRAWN FROM MKT. PRICES TOO LOW

At the recent special meeting of the city council, that body decided to stop selling city lots which had come into the city's possession through delinquent tax payments, until increased prices had been put on them.

At the meeting a brief report on property taken over by the city was presented by City Attorney J. H. Carkin. Following this, after some discussion and talks by Councilmen Butler and Jacobs, in view of the fact that some of the lots on paving have been sold for some time past at from $500 to $600 each, and that lots in similar cities in Oregon have been selling at from $700 to $800, and in some cases $1,000, and in view of the fact that some of these lots which have been sold by the city at from $500 to $600 have been resold at an advance of $100 to $200, and as the city has so few lots on hand, in view of the improved business conditions in the city, it was moved by Mr. Jacobs and seconded by Butler, to withdraw all lots from sale temporarily for the purpose of re-pricing same at their real value before making further sales.

"Big Dan" at Rialto

Social peculiarities and fistic mucularities furnish Charles Jones' production, "Big Dan," with a speedometer whose average register breaks even that lightning star's record for speed. It is announced as the feature attraction of the Rialto theatre tomorrow matinee.

Nothing seems more appropriate than a ringside background for Charles Jones. The tall, broad and square-jawed star seems to fit adequately a pugilistic setting.

Farm Rates Reduced Again

In a bulletin just published, effective Oct. 15th, rates on farm property in all standard stock fire insurance companies were reduced to $1.80 per $100.00 for three years and $2.70 for five years. This reduction is made in consideration of an application signed by the assured setting forth all facts regarding the property insured and follows the plan worked out successfully in several eastern states.

We would like to explain this plan to every farmer and orchardist and they are requested to call upon us at their earliest convenience so that any possible changes may be effected at once.
