Rally Day Set At Sutherlin

The Sutherlin Christian Church is planning a "rally day" for Oct. 6.

The goal this year is 110 members. A contest will be conducted between classes. Two teams with 38 on each side will vie, and the winning side will be treated by the losers. Each class will receive points from the visitors each Sunday.

A special program has been scheduled for Bible school hour on "rally day." The program will include four pantomimes based on the theme of "bringing the child in the way he should go." The beginners department will have a skit about the "barrel of kindness."

A potluck is planned after the church service. A special program and entertainment are on the agenda.

Plan Program

The men of the Ninety - Nine Men's Fellowship of the Sutherlin Christian Church planned a special program for the next meeting at the last session. They also discussed plans for the sports program for youth during the winter.

Special guest at the meeting was SP 2.c. Albert D. Kribs, who is home on leave after recently being stationed in Germany. He is the son of pastor Albert D. Kribs Sr. He served three years in Germany.

He will leave soon to be stationed at Camp Hanford, Wash. He has one more year of service.

His wife, Gertrude, is still in Karlsruke, Germany. She hopes to join her husband in the U. S. in about a month. The two met in Germany and were married there. This will be her first visit to the United States.

Canyonville PTA Greets Teachers

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

More than 75 parents and teachers turned out for the first Canyonville Parent-Teachers Assn. meeting.

Supt. O. J. Monger introduced the principals and head teachers of the various buildings. They, in turn, introduced teachers.

The business meeting was taken up with reports from committee chairmen, Monger and music director Gene Southwell.

Monger explained the new $10 deductible insurance carried by pupils. Southwell reported that he is organizing rhythm bands in the primary grades. He said the school band has increased from 25 to 35.

John Hakanson presented the proposed PTA budget and it was accepted.

At the conclusion of the meeting, 46 persons were listed as paid-up members. An announcement was made of a house - to - house membership drive.

During the program, the girls' triple trio sang.

The next meeting is scheduled Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m. The subject of possible afternoon meetings has been tabled.

Stolen John Burroughs Statue Found In River

DETROIT (AP)—The mystery of the missing statue of author John Burroughs has been cleared up by skindivers finding it in the Rogue River near the Fairlane estate of the late Henry Ford.

The heavy bronze likeness, valued at about $20,000, apparently had been rolled from its pedestal at Fairlane by would-be thieves who were unable to remove it.

The 3½-foot statue was sculptured by C. S. Pietro, and was purchased by Ford in 1919. Burroughs, a writer and naturalist, was a close friend of Ford.

A Fairlane spokesman said the statue will be cleaned and put back on the pedestal today.

GIVEN YEAR IN JAIL

PORTLAND (AP) — Circuit Judge Charles Redding here has sentenced to one year in jail Harold E. Dedlow, 28, Portland, who pleaded guilty to driving a car that killed a 15-year-old girl.

Dedlow was charged with negligent homicide after Nancy Case was struck by a car in the front yard of her home here last March.

Judge Redding said Dedlow will be paroled after he serves 90 days. Dedlow is the father of four children.
