BUTTER GRADES AGAIN ADVANCE

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 31.—(AP) Because of increased outside demand, three butter grades advanced today. Extras went up one cent to 46, prime firsts one-half cent to 44½ and firsts half a cent to 43c.

Eggs remained unchanged with a firm undertone that may betoken an advance.

Country meats are scarce and comparatively dear. Fresh pork went up to 14½@15c. Increased values were imminent in other meats as long as this snow keeps up, dealers say.

Sweet potatoes were stronger at 5 3-4@6.

Root vegetables are scarce and consequently high in price.

ELECTION BILLS PASSED IN HOUSE

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 31.—(AP) The house Wednesday afternoon passed ten house bills, all sponsored by the County Clerks' association of the state, and introduced by Robison of Clatsop, collectively carrying out the legal method of enforcing the absentee voter law and simplifying election procedure. The bills numbering from 204 to 214 inclusive, were passed without contest.

Without explanation house bills 244 and 252 were withdrawn Wednesday afternoon by the introducers of the bills, Russel and Tomkins. H. B. 251 defined the duties of the state tax commission and H. B. 252 would have removed from the tax exemption list all municipally owned property except that used for governmental, educational, park or charitable purposes.

MAY DECLARE MILK AS PUBLIC UTILITY

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Steps to have milk declared a public utility may be taken if the committee arbitrating the price dispute between producers and distributors of the Chicago area decide to pass the raise along to the consumer without due allowance for inefficient distribution, Health Commissioner Arnold Kegel has warned.

"I do not believe that babies and invalids of Chicago should be penalized for such inefficiency," he said.
