Labor Dept. Appeals Oregon Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court will review a Portland, Ore., U.S. District Court ruling in a case involving Oregon Frozen Foods Co. and Ore-Ida Potato Products, Inc.

The court at Portland ruled a frozen foods processor is exempt from overtime pay requirements of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act when engaged in post-seasonal repackaging of bulk frozen vegetables.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell appealed the case, saying the decision would affect thousands of workers throughout the industry.

The appeal asks for a decision to the effect that only first processing operations are exempt from requirements of the act for pay and one-half for all work done in excess of 40 hours a week.

Glendale Woman Injured In California Auto Mishap

By MRS. GERALD FOX

Mrs. Harry Swanson of Glendale recently suffered a broken right leg, a fractured skull, punctured ear drum and a cut on her head which required 27 stitches to close, in a bus-truck accident near Fairfield, Calif. She is now in Vallejo, Calif., but will probably be moved to Portland soon for plastic surgery and treatment by a bone specialist.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith Sr. of Glendale were their nephew, Walter Sherman, and his two daughters of Clatskanie, who visited over Palm Sunday, and their son, Chester Jr., and his wife and three children, who visited for several days until Easter Sunday.

Glendale Graduate

Sherman, who made his home with the Smiths for several years, graduated from the Glendale High School in 1928. He is a member of the high school faculty at Clatskanie. Chester Smith Jr., who graduated from the Oregon State College in 1953, is now employed by the agricultural engineering department there and is doing graduate work.

Charles Tooley of Glendale, who recently underwent surgery on his back, has re-entered Sacred Heart Hospital in Medford. X-rays have been taken to diagnose the cause of continued head and leg pains.

The Melvin Wood family of Glendale was visited last week by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harrison and son, Tommy, 6, of Klamath Falls.

The Glendale Music Department participated in the Southern Oregon Music Festival held at Fruitdale School in Grants Pass recently.

Glendale representatives included the high school girls' sextette, Sandra LaPrath, Nancy Smith, Ruth Harmonson, Marilyn Mehl, Georgia Mill and Karen Smith; the grade school brass quartet, Daryl Close, Wayne Troxell, Linda Van Duine and Larry Yoder; and the junior high triple trio, Joan Crews, Candace Cox, Martha Harmonson, Carol Major, Sally Buchanan, Donna Haggard, Diane Pratt and Lea McKeel.

Daryl Close gave a trombone solo, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Wayne Close.

Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McPherran of Quines Creek near Azalea, have returned home from visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diltz, and family in Seattle. The Diltzes live in a house boat on Lake Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edson spent a week recently, visiting friends and relatives in California, including Mr. and Mrs. Al Ross, former Glendale residents in San Francisco. Ross was a teacher in Glendale High School at one time and was known in the area as Al Rosenfeld.

The Edsons continued to San Diego, where they visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kinsman, and his two brothers, Orville and John Edson; and their wives. They also visited Mrs. Edson's girlhood friend, Mrs. Roy Webb, and husband in San Francisco.

The Rev. Roy Bedwell, formerly pastor of the Glendale Southern Baptist Church, recently became pastor of the Myrtle Creek First Baptist Church. He will make his home in Tri-City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Howard of Glendale spent Easter visiting her two brothers, C. L. Spaulding and R. J. Spaulding, both of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Ed Harris of Glendale and Mrs. Nelle Ricker of Grants Pass, former Glendale residents, attended the Aaranth meeting in Medford recently.

Mrs. Thelma Webber of Glendale underwent major surgery at Forest Glen Hospital last week.

Attends Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Johnson attended the director's meeting of the State Farm Bureau in Salem.

Linda Sheppard, 7, daughter of H. L. Sheppard of Quines Creek, required 15 stitches on her left leg recently, when she put her foot through the glass door at the front entrance of Glendale Grade School. She had been running and was unable to break her speed as she attempted to open the door.

Mrs. Andy Lundeen and Mrs. Jack Doss and daughter of Eugene have returned home after visiting Mrs. James Doss and family near Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Messersmith and daughter, Debby, 7 months old, of Sacramento, have continued on to Canada after visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strand. Messersmith, an Air Force career man en route to a new base in Canada, is acquainted with several Glendale residents since he lived with the Strand family for a few months while attending high school.

Terry Foreman, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foreman of Grants Pass and grandson of Mrs. Margaret Hill of Glendale, has entered Josephine General Hospital for skin grafting treatment necessitated by burns he received from gasoline spilled on his clothing and catching fire from a bonfire. A flap of skin from the child's thigh is being used for a skin graft on the leg from knee to ankle.

Continent Crossing Planned By Canoe

ASTORIA, Ore. (AP) — Two young adventurers are on their way across the American continent by canoe.

Al Welenofsky and Ted Nothall of Nutley, N.J., left Astoria, at the mouth of the Columbia River Sunday in their 18-foot metal canoe. They plan to paddle up the Columbia and Clark's Fork to its source and then portage 13 miles across the Continental Divide to a tributary of the Missouri River.

Then they will portage from the Missouri to the Souris River which flows into Lake Winnipeg in Canada. From there, they will follow lakes and streams to the Great Lakes. They will paddle through the lakes, the Erie Canal and the Hudson River to their homes in New Jersey.

Columbia R. Problems Slated For IJC Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The International Joint Commission opened its semiannual session Tuesday with a discussion of Columbia River water problems high on its program.

The four-day meeting between representatives of the United States and Canada will be private. Eugene W. Weber, a member of the U.S. panel, said a summary statement of accomplishments would be issued either late Friday or Saturday.

The commission has announced a major topic of discussion will be the recommendations of its International Columbia River Engineering Board for joint development of the river's water resources.
