Birthday Party Is Lovely Event

Mrs. C. M. Stierwalt celebrated her 95th birthday at Riversdale Sanitarium on Curry Road Thursday afternoon, at an open-house party. She received a number of lovely gifts, cards and flowers. She wore a becoming orchid-colored dress which was a gift from the nurses and helpers at the sanitarium, where "Grandma Stierwalt" is a beloved and highly esteemed patient. Though old in point of years, Mrs. Stierwalt is still young in spirit. She loves to study her Bible and other inspirational literature — says an hour of Bible study, meditation and prayer marks the beginning of each of her days. She attends Sabbath services quite regularly saying she dreads the time when that may no longer be possible.

For the party co-hostesses Mrs. Lesta Follett and Mrs. R. W. Pearson, had provided fruit punch and a beautiful large white sheet cake decorated with sprays of orchid-colored roses and bearing a birthday greeting in the same lovely color.

Mrs. Steirwalt is not an idle person. She continues to make hand-woven rugs on the loom her brother made for her many years ago. Some of these she sells to have money for diferent church and Sabbath School projects and some she gives to friends. Her rugmaking enabled her to contribute more than $200 toward the building fund for the new Adventist church.

Mrs. Stierwalt was born in Hutchinson, Minn., in 1866, where she grew to womanhood and was married in 1893. She and her husband came to Roseburg in 1913 and this has been home to her ever since that time. Her husband died in 1943. The Steirwalts have two children, Earl, of Olympia, Wash., and Mable (Mrs. Arthur Warren) of Eugene. Neither was able to be present for the celebration but the Warrens do visit her quite frequently, their last visit was March 31.

Most of the time, since her husband's death, Mrs. Stierwalt has made her home with Mrs. A. S. Wallace on West Harrison Street until it became advisable for her to move to the nursing home a few years ago. She and her husband held a number of responsible church and Sabbath School offices during their younger days. A beautiful corsage was presented to her from members of the Sabbath School.

Among those who came to say "Happy Birthday" were: the hostesses Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Follett; Mrs. A. S. Wallace, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. William Eash, Mrs. Harold Graves, Elder and Mrs. A. P. Ritz, Mrs. Louise Barnes, Mrs. Alma Coates, Mrs. Edna Coates, Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw, who sang "Happy Birthday to You" accompanied by Mrs. Estelle McBee at the piano (Mrs. McBee is a blind patient at the sanitarium); Mrs. Clarence Munroe, Mrs. A. B. Munroe, Mrs. Neta Bryant, Mrs. Mary Sala, Mrs. Perry Cole, Jackie Bruton, Joyce LaDuke, Mrs. Mary Kissinger, Ellen Wonser, Mrs. Bertha Carlson, Stella Wharton, Mrs. Clayton Konzack, Mrs. Elsie Hughes, (who cut and served the birthday cake); Elder and Mrs. Ashley Emmer and Mrs. Elmer Hitchman.

At supper time each of the patients found a piece of the lovely birthday cake on his tray.
