Rusk Is Free To Extradite Venezuelan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk was free Tuesday to return to Venezuela former dictator Marco Perez Jimenez who faces trial for actions during his regime.

Rusk has 60 days to act on the Supreme Court decision Monday which ruled against Perez Jimenez's appeal from extradition. He faces charges of murder, embezzlement and fraud by the government which toppled him from power in 1958.

David Walters, Perez Jimenez's attorney, said he was "astonished" at the decision. "We are filing a petition for reconsideration" and appealing to Rusk not to extradite the former ruler, he said.

U.S. officials have indicated that if the decision went against the former ruler, he would be extradited swiftly. He now is being held in a Miami jail after being refused bail by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

After the revolution, Perez Jimenez fled to the United States and took up asylum. Venezuela requested his return and the State Department asked the courts if it had the authority to do so.

His attorneys claimed that the efforts to extradite the one-time Venezuelan strong man marked the first time that aid of the U.S. courts has been used to force the return of a foreign president who took asylum in this country.

Perez Jimenez claimed in his petition for a court hearing that he was being sought for "political offenses" by his enemies who overthrew him in a 1958 revolution.

He disputed a 1961 ruling by Federal Judge George W. Whitehurst that his financial crimes were extraditable offenses under a U.S.-Venezuelan treaty. Whitehurst refused however to allow the murder charges to be part of the case. This means that under the treaty, Perez Jimenez can be tried by the Venezuelans only on the fraud and embezzlement accusations.

However, the ousted ruler has said that his extradition would amount to "a forced return in chains to a Castro-type circus" where he might meet "accidental death" by shooting.

Forest Glenners Report Activities

By MRS. R. E. PROCTOR

A variety of activities continue to keep Forest Glen Senior Residence members busy and interested.

Acquaintance Renewed

Mrs. Ruth Anderson from the U. S. Recruiting Office in Sacramento stopped over the weekend to renew acquaintance with her friend, Mrs. Mary Shelton. Mrs. Anderson was formerly employed at Longview, Wash., recruiting offices.

A highlight of last week's Methodist Women's Society meeting held on the fifth floor were hymns sung to organ accompaniment by Mrs. Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Baker have returned to the residence after spending a week in Portland. They report it rained there, too.

Mrs. Evelyn Miles has left to be with the family of her son at Forest Grove. She received news of his death due to an automobile accident May 5.

Mrs. Zella Buzan returned to her sixth floor rooms this week following a month's vacation.

Aaron and Arcola Glasgow showed slides of one of their many trips Thursday evening. Nancy Fotheringham discussed the United Nations during the meeting.

Many residents have been attending a series of illustrated lecturers held at the Canyonville SDA auditorium. This week a series of study classes will close with a fellowship dinner Thursday and baptismal services scheduled for Saturday evening.

Former Oaklander Visits

Harry Hull of Everett, Wash., a former resident of Oakland, visited in Oakland recently with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand and with other friends in the area.

Son-in-Law Visited

Mrs. Mamie Pelzel is currently spending several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cummings, in Sunnydale, Calif., correspondent Edith Dunn reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Perry of Portland spent the weekend with Mrs. Perry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Churchill.

WANT MODERN FASHIONS

PARIS (UPI) — Air France ground hostesses have threatened to work in civilian clothes unless their employer comes up with jet age fashions.

"We are wearing uniforms designed in 1946," said a spokesman for the 140 hostesses. "Our colleagues around the world are wearing uniforms designed by Dior and we look like poor parents."

"You'd better come back tomorrow! Pop's opinion isn't home!"

Soviets Decline View Of Cooper On Telstar II

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union [illegible] a European television hookup which officials hope will allow 40 million viewers to watch astronaut L. Gordon Cooper's flight.

Plans called for the launching to be beamed to Europe from the Telstar satellite and then relayed by land lines.

Four Communist bloc nations—Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and East Germany—were connected to the network, which extends from Spain to Finland in Western Europe. Officials said they were picking up the telecast for recording purposes. There was no indication of what use they planned to make of the tape.

There was no official explanation for the Soviet refusal to take part in the telecast, but in the past the Russians have played down U.S. space achievements and emphasized their own.

The first Soviet mention of Cooper's flight was made Monday by Tass, the official news agency. It took pains to point out his scheduled 22 orbits were far fewer than the 64 orbits made last August by Soviet astronaut Andrian Nikolayev.

Britain, France, West Germany, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Finland, Denmark, and The Netherlands were participating in the television hookup. The total audience was estimated conservatively at 40 million.

American servicemen stayed close to radio sets for broadcasts of the flight over the American forces network. Many have television sets able to pick up the European transmissions.

GETTING GOOD REST

LONDON (UPI)—The Daily Express said today the Marquis of Bath, 58, has "spent a good deal of his time" in bed since attempting a 50-mile hike inspired by President Kennedy's fitness plea earlier this year.

The newspaper quoted the Marquis as saying, "It was terribly cold that night and I have not been very well. I have just spent six weeks in bed with pneumonia, and I am still not in top form."

Bath dropped out after 13½ miles of the walk, held last February.

Tiller Area Parents Accompany Students On Trek To Portland

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERSLY

Tiller area parents furnishing transportation for some of the Days Creek High School seniors on their annual "skip day" outing were Mrs. C. J. Porter and Mrs. Hillard M. Lilligren of Tiller and Roy Jackson of Drew.

Tours Made

The students made a weekend trip to Portland where they visited several points of interest.

Those accompanying the local drivers were Rosemary Porter, Jon Lilligren, Charles Collins, Deanna Campbell, Sherry Hunter and Avis Lewis of Tiller, Allen Helvey and Pat Jenk of Drew and Clifton Mather of Milo.

Attending workshops at the recent PTA state convention held in Eugene as local delegates were incoming officers Mrs. Gershom Roy of Milo, president; Mrs. Glen Hunter, vice president and Mrs. John A. Wright Sr., treasurer, both of Tiller. They attended only one day of the three-day event.

MacBelle Rainville has returned to her home at Tiller following the winter months in Holtville, Calif., where she was employed.

Kansas Trip Made

Mrs. William V. Hall of Milo returned recently following a trip to Goodland, Kan., where she was called by the death of her mother. She was gone a week and a half, traveling by bus. Earlier this year, Mrs. Hall and her husband had spent a month visiting relatives in Kansas.

Mrs. Mildred Anderson and daughter, Naoma, of Salem spent a few days recently at the home of the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson and children at Drew, with whom another daughter, Carlene Anderson, also makes her home.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dahack were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Copley, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pfeifer, all of Shady Cove; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pategian of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell of Medford and Emma Bee Munday, Louise C. Lee, Mary C. Trout and Mildred Bello, all of whom make their home in Rogue Valley Manor, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Belcher made a recent trip to Howard Prairie Reservoir but found that a severe wind which struck the immediate area the previous day had stirred up the waters of the lake and temporarily ruined fishing chances.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kohl moved over the weekend from the Forest Service apartments at the old CCC camp location upriver from Tiller to the newly-constructed home at the Tiller Ranger Station. Kohl is Umpqua Ranger District.

Girls At Little River Organize Sewing Club

A new "it's fun to sew" club was organized recently by Mrs. Neil Talcott and Mrs. Watson Talcott at a meeting held at the Little River home of Mrs. Neil Talcott. Charter members present chose the name "Busy Bees" for the club.

Officers elected were Carol Engles, president; Cathy Talcott, vice president; Susan Talcott, secretary; Bonnie Ivey, reporter; Wendy Hickman, music chairman; Yvonne Dumont, health chairman; and Cindy Talcott and Carla Anderson, recreation and refreshment committee.

Mrs. Neil Talcott discussed the purpose of a 4-H sewing club and also demonstrated how to make and use a kit for sewing tools.

Refreshments were served to seven charter members and the leaders.

(5) The name and address of such claimant and names and addresses so far as known to the claimant of any other person or persons claiming any interest or interests in or under such unpatented mining claim; such failure shall be conclusively deemed (i) to constitute a waiver and relinquishment by such mining claimant of any right, title, or interest under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367), as to unpatented claims located after that date; and (ii) to constitute a consent by such mining claimant that such unpatented mining claim shall be subject to said limitations and restrictions, and (iii) to preclude thereafter, prior to issuance of patent, any assertion by such mining claimant of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with said limitations or restrictions. Section 4 provides, generally, that unpatented mining claims located after July 23, 1955 shall not be used for purposes other than prospecting, mining, or processing operations, or uses reasonably incident thereto; that such claims will be subject to the right of the United States to manage and dispose of the vegetative surface resources thereof and to manage other surface resources thereof; and that, except to the extent required for mining operations and uses reasonably incident thereto or to provide clearance for such operations or uses, claimants of such claims shall not use or dispose of vegetative or other surface resources thereof; and that, except for clearance for such purposes, any permitted severance or removal of timber must be in accordance with sound principles of forest management. Said section 4 also provides that any use of the surface of any such mining claim by the United States, its permittees or licensees, shall be such as not to endanger or materially interfere with the prospecting, mining, processing or reasonably incident uses by the mining claimant.
