IN the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, Ninth Judicial Circuit, in Equity.

In the matter of the insolvency and receivership of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, No. 3299. Order filed and given June 8, 1910.

N. Coy, complainant, vs. the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, a corporation, J. Thorburn Ross, George H. Hill, T. T. Burkhart, John E. Aitchison and F. M. Warren, defendants.

There having been filed in and presented to this court a petition wherein and wherefrom it is made competently to appear that Portland Development Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Oregon, with its principal office and place of business at Portland in said state, has suffered foreclosure of all of its properties under certain purchase money mortgages therefore executed and delivered by it, and that moneys have been advanced from the receivership herein and from other sources for the protection of the properties more adequately to secure the repayment of the sums of money due the Title Guarantee & Trust Company theretofore incurred by Portland Development Company to it, and that for further assurance in and about the conveyance of said land to the purchaser at such foreclosure sales, under the decrees of foreclosure conveyances should be had and given by Portland Development Company and by the receiver herein for the further assurance of title thereto, and it being further made to appear in and by said petition among other things that deeds of conveyance should be executed evidencing paper title acceptable to purchasers to whom sale of said property may be made, and it appearing that the usufruct of the properties is destroyed and the same practically valueless without a ready means of sale of the same, and the court being fully advised in the premises, it is now here

Considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed on this 8th day of June, 1910, that unless parties and persons objecting thereto shall intervene and show cause herein on or before the 20th day of June, 1910, in this our court at the Federal Courthouse in the City of Portland, before us at the coming in of court on said day, R. S. Howard, Jr., receiver, and those other persons, officers of said Portland Development Company, shall be and under this order, unless objected to, may be authorized, empowered and directed to make, execute and deliver, in the name of Portland Development Company, all and every and singular quitclaim deeds, further assurances of title and relinquishments as may be reasonably required for the further assurance of title acceptable to purchasers of the properties involved in said foreclosure suits more particularly described in said petition, as well as in and to the property covered by the mortgages therein referred to, to the end that full confirmatory title may and shall be had by said purchasers in and to said properties.

All persons having or pretending to have any right, claim or interest adverse or against the conveyance of said properties are hereby required and cited to be and appear before us at our said court in the Federal building at the coming in of court on the 20th day of June, 1910, or as soon thereafter as they can conveniently be heard on said day, there cause to show, if any they have, why said conveyances should not be made, and in default thereof R. S. Howard, Jr., receiver, and by virtue of his relationship as such, president of Portland Development Company, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to make, execute and deliver deeds of conveyance and quitclaim and further assurances of title as may be required to the purchasers at foreclosure sale, for the causes and reasons set forth herein;

That this order shall be published, commencing Thursday, the 9th day of June, in The Oregonian in each morning issue to and inclusive of the issue of Sunday, the 19th, and due return of said publication made into this court.

Given and done in open court this 8th day of June, 1910.
