Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Readers should address inquiries to:
Dr. William Brady
263 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

HOW TO BECOME FAMOUS

Take it from Ol Doc Brady, who never lets you poor souls down — unless the editors or somebody rap him on the knuckles so he has to let go and leave you suspended until more space is available — the easiest way to become famous is to employ a good agent, the kind formerly called a press agent but latterly known as a public relations counsellor. The difference between the former and the latter is upwards of $800 a month.

Up to now I haven't spent a penny for such service. Why should I? Some of the best p. r. counsellors in the business are glad to serve me out of kindness, gratitude or good will, as for instance this Chicago cop, who probably will never forget how easy I was with him the extremely hot day he stopped me out on Lake Shore Drive and opined I was going a teeny-weeny bit too fast. Well, anyway, he was a fine broth of a boy and when I told him me name was Brady he waved me on with all good wishes.

Not long afterward I heard from a New Jersey reader whose cousin from Chicago had just visited her. She says:

"I have arthritis in my knees, hands and hips. He said you had cured so many people in Chicago and I should write and ask for your prescription of vitamins and also what foods to eat."

From that army of people in Chicago I have received one testimonial, to wit:

Dear Dr. Brady:

What you said about rheumatiz made a deep impression on me:

"In my judgment joint disability of more than a year's duration is usually not arthritis at all (joint inflammation) but rheumatiz (degeneration of joint tissues) due to prolonged, probably lifelong nutritional deficiency."

Having had two years of treatment with medicine and shots for so-called arthritis, I realized I was steadily getting no better.

So I discontinued medical treatment and began Ca, D, B-Complex and I as you suggest in your pamphlet. That was in April, '54. Have never seen my doctor since. All of the pain has left my knees and I feel just fine . . .

(Signed—C.W. Van H.)

Next time I encounter that cop out on the Drive I'll ask him if he will please try not to be so stupid.

Treatment of arthritis, a comparatively rare disease, is a matter which only the patient's physician can intelligently advise or apply. For all the information the New Jersey woman vouchsafes her trouble may or may not be arthritis.

In the case of the Chicago man, I'm encouraged to think, I got over the point I have been trying so hard to put over. He's one in a thousand. Most of you poor geeks will continue to pay through the nose for wonder drugs and shots as long as your trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers can string you along with the phony diagnosis of "arthritis."

What do I mean, phony?

For one thing I mean that in nine cases out of ten the joint disability is not inflammation at all (not arthr-itis) . . . instead, it is physical degeneration. Consult the dictionary for the meaning of physical degeneration, and if you want to know how to prevent, retard, arrest or maybe reverse degeneration, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing, signed, (no clipping, please) for the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Mud in Your Eye

Six years ago I took mud baths for what they said was arthritis. But the trouble has become steadily worse and now I wonder if there is a difference between arthritis and this "rheumatiz". (F. A.)

Answer—Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing, signed, for pamphlet CALCI-UM AND RHEUMATIZ.

Well, Where?

Please write an article on the itch we women get, you know where. (Mrs. M. L. C.)

Answer—Maybe at the club? The movies? No matter—send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing, signed, for pamphlet PRURITUS, Itching without apparent cause.

Neighbors Are So Gullible

Many of our neighbors are sure we'll all get what they call aluminum poisoning some day from aluminum kitchen ware. They say we should scrap it and get the ware a smooth salesman tells them . . . (Mrs. S. L.)

Answer—We've been eating out of aluminum ware since Topsy was a colt. It would take a very smooth salesman to persuade us to trade in our aluminum ware for any other kind.

Lady Likes Lemons

Some days I use half-dozen lemons—I drink the juice in water, without sugar. Now I have a breaking out on my chin. Is this from too much lemon? Can one drink too much lemon juice? (Mrs. B. R.)

Answer—No. It is harmless.
