Soviets Make Merry To American Jazz

Moscow — (U.P.) — Solid Soviet citizens made merry to the tune of American jazz at the opening of Moscow's first nightspot since before World War II this weekend.

A 26-piece American-style jazz band in white jackets blared out such American oldies as "Lady in Red," "Dipsy Doodle," "Caravan," and "Night and Day."

The new restaurant, in the swank Sovietskaya Hotel building, is located on the same spot as the pre-revolutionary "Yar," famous for its gypsy fiddling, and old-timers say the room is just the same as it was in the time of the Czars.
