GOOD INVESTMENTS.

One of the largest land deals in the history of Benton County has just been closed, whereby Frank Lutz sold his fine farm of 358 acres, located 4 miles south of Philomath, Oregon, to D. M. Ruggles; consideration, $22,000. The deal was made through the Rainwater & Bowman Land Co., of Philomath, Oregon. Mr. Ruggles, who bought the place, expects to cut it up into small tracts to suit purchasers, and has already sold 30 acres to A. G. Hill, of Dayton, Oregon. This is one of the finest tracts in the county, and will make excellent fruit farms.

A tract of 320 acres, suitable to cut up into small tracts for fruit and poultry, 2 miles from Philomath, Oregon; 200 acres under cultivation; price, $70 per acre.

Also a tract of 148 acres, one-half mile from Philomath, Oregon, which could be cut up into small tracts for fruits or diversified farming; 100 acres under cultivation; price, $60 per acre.

Also good farm propositions, large and small, for homes or investment.

For folder or map of Oregon, call on or write Rainwater & Bowman Land Co., Box 337-B, Philomath, Benton County, Or.
