BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.

$500 CASH for names for the new city, the new port, about to be established on the Pacific Coast by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Use your head and win first prize, $100, or part of the rest of the $500. It costs nothing to enter the contest and there are no strings to this offer; everybody has an equal chance; plain working-men and their children are as likely to win as the highest honored college graduates. Now here is information that will guide you in selecting a name: The contitent Terminal Company, Ltd., capitalized at $750,000, sold to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company the land required for its Pacific Coast freight and general operating terminus, reserving for themselves approximately 45000 acres adjoining the terminal properties. A name is required to distinguish this townsite from the remaining 44 square miles in the municipality of Coquitlam. It is planned to place the townsite on the market some time this Fall, but it should be understood that no lots are offered for sale as yet. The C. P. R. will have a monthly payroll here of $500,000; this will attract business men, tradesmen and professional men; who, together with the 5000 employes of the railway company and their families, will make at once a thriving city, about 17 miles from Vancouver, British Columbia, giving in the near future a population of 25,000 or more. This site was selected by the C. P. R. for the reason that in all Pacific America there is not another place so well situated for the purpose, as well as for the manufacturing plants that it plans to come. Write plainly the name you consider appropriate for the new city, together with your name and address, on a sheet of paper, or a post-card, and mail to us today. Contest closes October 15. If the committee of responsible and competent citizens decides that yours is the best (and it might be the best) we will immediately mail you our check for $100 and thank you for suggesting the name. If you come short of the best name you have 20 other chances for the rest of the $500. If you do not wish to enter the contest, but only want information about the new city, simply send your name and address and we will immediately forward the fullest details. COQUITLAM TERMINAL COMPANY, LTD., 940 Dower bldg., Vancouver, Canada.
