For Sale—Houses.

COUNCIL CREST.

8-room hillside French Chalet home, commanding unobstructed view of city, rivers and snow-capped mountains. The exterior is shingle and painted in a light gray with white trimmings and tile roof. The first floor contains a large cabinet kitchen, butler's pantry, dining-room, maid's room, furnace-room, storage, laundry and toilet. The dining-room is finished in old English, with paneling and plate rail. The panels are inlaid with tapestry cloth. The ceiling is plaster, beamed in typical French style. In one corner of the room is a large red pressed brick fireplace. French doors on east side of dining-room open on a large view veranda. A wide-open stairway leads to the main reception hall on the floor above. This floor has a living-room 16x30, with massive stone inglenook, fireplace on one side. Den and very large bedroom with private bath and dressing-room. The living-room is finished in the early English—paneled and heavy beamed ceiling. The walls are artistically decorated. French doors in living-room and bedroom open onto a large glass enclosed view porch, which has a large stone fireplace. The bedroom is finished in the old ivory enamel and decorated in Japanese grass cloth. The den is finished in the old ivory and the walls are daintily decorated, large open bookcases. From the large main reception hall in front a wide open stairway leads to the floor above, which contains two very large sleeping chambers, and complete bathroom. Large linen closets, dressing-rooms, clothes closets and storerooms. One bedroom has a large pressed brick fireplace. The walls are tastefully decorated. This home is very unique in every detail and its hillside location is unexcelled for view and architectural landscape. For immediate sale, price by owner, $10,000. Will take first mortgage paper—Provident Trust Company bonds or $3000 cash and balance to suit. AH 650, Oregonian.

ALFALFA LAND, $75 ACRE.

CHEAP GRAVITY IRRIGATION.

FREE COWS; FREE PASTURE.

Los Molinos is the only district in California where you can get good alfalfa land under gravity irrigation for $75 to $125 per acre.

Only 10 per cent cash; 8 years to pay out.

This year's crop of alfalfa from this land was worth $100 to $125 an acre—more than the price of the land.

Anybody can make good with such an opportunity as this.

You don't have to wait until next year to start.

Plenty of free pasture right now.

Cows furnished on butterfat payments—all you can handle.

One of the few districts in the state that had plenty of water last season—the driest ever known.

Silt soil 20 feet deep; oak trees; running streams.

No better fruit or vegetable land anywhere.

A dozen fresh vegetables now growing in farmers' gardens.

Beautiful place to live; schools, churches, etc.

More land sold than anywhere else in California or the West in the last two months.

Any sized tract you want.

Choice land is getting scarce.
