NIGHTRIDER WARRANT DUE

Woman at Centralia on Way to Fight Alleged "Ring."

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—On her way to South Bend to swear out warrants for the arrest of J. N. Howard and A. Bradley, two of the alleged nightriders in the North River country, and a woman named Vanderpool, Mrs. Margaret M. Ross was in Centralia yesterday.

Mrs. Ross was bitter in her denunciation of the tactics of the nightriders, at whose hands she and her two sons have suffered for the past year and a half. She terms them a "ring" of Pacific County officials. Mrs. Ross asserted that a Deputy Sheriff is numbered in the lawless band. The woman stated that she has been offered a contract as a Chatauqua lecturer and that if she accepts she will give Western Washington such a black eye throughout the East that prospective settlers will avoid it.

CLASSIFIED AD. RATES

Daily and Sunday.

	Per Line.
One time	1c
Same ad two consecutive times	2c
Same ad three consecutive times	3c
Same ad six or seven consecutive times	5c

The above rates apply to advertisements under "New Today" and all other classifications except the following:

Situations Wanted—Male.
Situations Wanted—Female.
For Rent, Rooms, Private Families.
Rooms and Board, Private Families.
Housekeeping Rooms, Private Families.

Rate on the above classifications is 7 cents a line each insertion.

On "charge" advertisements charge will be based on the number of lines appearing in the paper, regardless of the number of words in each line. Minimum charge, two lines.

The Oregonian will accept classified advertisements over the telephone, provided the advertiser is a subscriber to either phone. No prices will be quoted over the phone, but bill will be rendered the following day. Whether subsequent advertisements will be accepted over the phone depends upon the promptness of payment of telephone advertisements. Situations Wanted and Personal advertisements will not be accepted over the telephone. Orders for one insertion only will be accepted for "Furniture for Sale," "Business Opportunities," "Rooming-Houses" and "Wanted to Rent."

The Oregonian will not guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors occurring in telephoned advertisements.

Advertisements to receive prompt classification must be in The Oregonian office before 9 o'clock at night, except Saturday. Closing hour for The Sunday Oregonian will be 7:30 o'clock Saturday night. The office will be open until 10 o'clock P. M., as usual, and all ads received too late for proper classification will be run under the heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Oregonian will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement offered for more than one time.

Telephones: Main 7070, A 6095.

Why Not Sell Your Old Clothes?

Why don't you turn your old discarded clothing into cash? Dealers of second hand clothes will gladly pay reasonable prices for them. The most reliable of these concerns frequently run a little Want Ad in our Classified Advertising section—turn to it. Then look over your wardrobe, see what clothing you no longer want, and phone or send a postal to these concerns. They will call, take your clothing, and pay you spot cash. This is a simple and easy way of getting money out of something which would otherwise be useless to you.
