Stocks Enter Losing Ground

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Stocks, with scattered exceptions, stumbled into losing territory today although pressure on the market was relatively slack on a last-minute liquidating flurry.

Dealings during the greater part of the proceedings were among the slowest of the past year. Selling became more active in the final half hour and closing declines of fractions to better than 2 points were widespread. Traders ran to around 700,000 shares for the full stretch.

Standard Oil (N.J.) and Texas Co. reached new 1947 highs before backsliding. New lows for the year were for Burlington Mills, Rexall Drug, Pfizer and Lockheed. Losers included Youngstown Sheet, Bethlehem, Allegheny Ludlum Steel, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Corn Products, United Carbon, Lion Oil, Santa Fe and Union Pacific.

Caution was the watchword in financial quarter pending more light on the course of business, labor and tax legislation, wage-price situations and foreign problems.

Bonds were uneven.

Wheat Leads Rally Today

CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—A rally led by May wheat developed toward the close of grain trading today when reports from Washington said the government was not planning any extension of time for cash deliveries of wheat.

May wheat, which was off as much as 4 cents during the early trading, spurted quickly on short covering and at one time went above the preceding close. Strength in this contract created a buying movement in all other grains.

Cash grain dealers have contracted to deliver wheat to the commodity credit corporation by May 31. If this delivery date were postponed until June 30, these contracts could be filled from new crop wheat. This possibility, now denied, weakened the May wheat contract late last week and early today.

The sharp rally continued to the close. Wheat finished ¼-2½c higher, May $2.06⅝-⅞, corn was ¼-2⅛c higher, May $1.00⅝-1.70, and oats were ½-⅞c higher, May 82⅝-⅞c.

WHY WE SAY

by STAN J. COLLINS & L. J. SLAWSON

Brides are still advised to wear something blue at the wedding ceremony because of an ancient Israelite custom which suggested a blue ribbon for the bride—blue being the color of purity, love and fidelity.

Royal Family Returns Home

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—Through flag-bedecked streets lined with cheering thousands, Great Britain's royal family returned to London from South Africa today with ceremony and splendor recalling the king's coronation exactly ten years ago.

Crowds that began to gather at daybreak occupied every foot of the mile-long route to Buckingham palace from bunting-draped Waterloo station, where the royal family was welcomed by Prime Minister Attlee and other government leaders at 12:30 p. m.

Apparently unwearied by their civic reception at Portsmouth earlier in the day, King George, Queen Elizabeth and the two princesses smiled and waved as they rode through Whitehall in an open coach drawn by grey horses with scarlet-clad postillions and a mounted police escort.

It was the capital's first sight of the royal family in three months, and Londoners of high and low estate joined in the welcome home.

Marsupial Movie Star Breaks Neck

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., May 12 (AP) — Joey, the marsupial movie star, is dead.

The king-sized kangaroo, selected in Australia, brought over in first class accommodations on a luxury liner and welcomed with typical press agented hullabaloo a year ago, was killed Saturday.

A tractor frightened Joe, he attempted to leap a high wire fence, struck the top strand and fell back, breaking his neck.

APPOINTMENT

TOKYO, May 12 (AP)—Appointment of James S. Killen, Falls Church, Va., as chief of the labor division of allied headquarters' economic and scientific section was announced today. Killen is on leave as a vice president of the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Papermill Workers (AFL).
