SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton

NEW YORK (AP)—A couple of fighters were pinched in Cincinnati the other day for "intending to engage in a prize fight. . . "we'd like to see any one pin that rap on some of the athletes who have appeared in the Garden ring recently. . . they're so inconsistent you don't know when they climb into the ring whether they intend to fight. . . Quinn Decker, football coach at the Citadel of Charleston, turned down an automobile from a booster club because he said the dough "can be used in better ways to improve athletics.". . . in case you don't know, a new car usually will get you a good halfback—provided you match the other inducements offered by rival schools. . . in 53 years, no football team has been able to win the Big Ten title while losing more than one conference game. . . looks like this may be the season when the championship will be held in advance.

You can believe this or not, as you choose, but Colgate Drum-beater Don Frick says it was reported by Halfback Alan Egler. . . while Colegate was holding a pre-season scrimmage against an unnamed college, Egler, who had been hurt, was told to exercise by jogging around the field. . . he happened to pause behind the rival's bench just long enough to overhear this conversation: coach: "You see what's happening in there, Moronski. They're pushing us all around. Now I want you to get in there and get vicious. . " Player: "OK, coach. I get you. But who's vicious? What number is he wearing?"

One of the bigger laughs comes from the report that Charley Ewart had to bear down on the N. Y. Bulldogs in practice to prevent "overconfidence." . . . Incidentally, Georgains aren't surprised at Johnny Rauch's fine work as defensive halfback for the Bulldogs. He averaged 50 minutes a game, much of it on defense, in four years at Georgia. . . the Minneapolis Lakers are shooting for their third straight basketball title in three different leagues. They won the National league title in 1948 and the BAA last year; now they're in the NBA . . . pro grid scouts have been conversing on Hattiesburg, Miss., to inspect Cliff Coggin, 210-pound end, and Halfback Frankie Spruiell of Mississippi Southern college.

Note to scouts: the Indiana State reformatory "Red Raiders" have won six football games in a row, one by 101-0. Several of its players are due to "graduate" soon. . North Texas State, which has only one letterman back from last year's national collegiate golf championship team, isn't worrying. Six players broke 300 in a recent 72-hole freshman-soph tournament and Frosh Billy Maxwell carded 278. . . Scoop Latimer reports southern football teams are so weak this year that the only time the offensive platoons see the ball is when they pump it up.

Chaos Reigns as Western Conference Battle For Rose Trek

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP) — It's Michigan by 6½ points and Minnesota by 13½ in the big games Saturday that settle a couple of important football issues in the midlands.

The odds-makers thus have prescribed an economy-sized headache for the men who must pick the Western conference representative to the Rose Bowl.

Michigan is host to Ohio State at Ann Arbor while Minnesota plays Wisconsin at Minneapolis.

Should the Wolverines and Gophers prevail as predicted, the Big Ten championship would be decided in Michigan's favor for the third straight year but the Bowl picture would be complete confusion.

Ohio State, which now shares the league lead with Michigan, would be tied with Minnesota with a 4-2 mark and Illinois could even horn in with a claim by trimming Northwestern.

The Buckeyes could simplify matters by upsetting Michigan and taking the whole works—the Big Ten title and the bowl, too. Michigan is ineligible to return to Pasadena because it was a visitor there two years ago.

Another contingency—a Wisconsin victory and an Ohio State defeat—would put the Badgers in there. All is chaos.

The decision will be made by a vote of conference faculty representatives if the issue is not cleanly settled Saturday. The announcement will be made Monday, Commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson said.

The slide rule specialists who dope these things out in advance forecast no such complications at the other end of the Rose Bowl axis—the Pacific Coast.

Out there the unbeaten untied California Bears rule a 6½ point favorite over Stanford, although the fray is at the Indians' stomping grounds in Palo Alto.

California, Michigan, Ohio State and Minnesota are paid-up members of the sport's top ten, picked in the weekly Associated Press poll. They are third, fifth, seventh and eighth, respectfully.

Virginia, rated ninth, is the only one of this select society expected to take it on the chin this week. The Cavaliers are 13½ point underdogs in their game with Tulane.

Top-rated Notre Dame is favored for another romp—a 33-point pick over Iowa. Second-ranked Oklahoma is 20 over Santa Clara. Army, No. 4, is idle, pointing to Navy a week later.

Rice, sixth in the latest poll, is rated 7½ points better than Texas Christian. Southern Methodist, No. 10, is 6½ over Baylor.

Here's how some of the other headline game stack up in the early odds: Pittsburgh 6 over Penn State, Missouri 6 over Kansas, Purdue 10 over Indiana, Illinois 10 over Northwestern, Arkansas 3 over William and Mary, North Carolina 3 over Duke Kentucky 12½ over William and Mary, North Carolina 3 over Duke, Kentucky 12½ over Tennessee, Georgia Tech 14 over South Carolina, Southern California 7 over UCLA and Washington 7½ over Washington State

Powers Lost To Trojans

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (AP)—The University of Southern California has lost its main offensive threat for the season—Ace Quarterback Jim Powers.

Powers, the Pacific coast conference's top passer, is hospitalized with a chipped hip bone suffered in the November 5 Stanford game. The injury was discovered only yesterday by X-ray.

The Trojans' No. 2 and No. 3 quarterbacks also are sidelined which means that Coach Jeff Cravath may have to start Sophomore Dean Schneider, a fourth-stringer, against UCLA Saturday and Notre Dame the following week.

RING DEM BELLS!

PORTLAND, Nov. 16 (AP) — Governor McKay told a republican group here he was confident the party would retain control of Oregon. But he said precinct workers must "ring door bells" to do the job.

6000 Players Go On Block at Draft

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16 (AP)—Major league baseball begins another of its chilly weather flings here today.

The rules committee of baseball met during the day as the brass of the majors began arriving for the annual player draft tomorrow. The American association also had a meeting scheduled for today.

Recommendations for several changes will be acted upon by the rules committee, including one to revoke the provision forbidding the starting of an inning in a night game after 12:50 a. m.

Another would change the rule which provides that a base runner is out if hit by a batted ball while standing on base. That change would not apply if the base runner were on the move.

The recommendations have been submitted by a subcommittee which made a story of the rules over a period of several months.

Some 6000 players, including 183 of the bonus variety, will go on the block at the draft meeting. Bonus players are those who were paid more than a specified amount to sign a contract.

Not too many players are expected to be picked up in the draft. In 1948 only 19 were claimed for a total of $182,500.

The last are first so far as making selections in the draft. The teams which finished last in the National and American seasons this year get first crack at the talent.

PORTLAND MAY DROP FROM STATE PLAY-OFF

By The Associated Press

Rumor of a post-season meeting between city high school football champions of Portland and Seattle were disclosed in the Oregon city last night and promptly denied in Seattle.

The report was published in the Prep Patter column of the Oregonian. The newspaper said Portland schools are thinking of dropping out of the annual Oregon title playoff because the sponsoring Oregon High School Activities association takes a 75 per cent cut of the receipts.

It had been suggested, the report continued, that Portland and Seattle teams tangle in a post-season clash each year. The two top teams would meet in one city and the runnersup in the two leagues meeting in the other.

In Seattle, Athletic Director Leon Brigham described the proposal as "news to me," but followed that up by saying that "such a plan has been rejected by the Seattle school administration."

"We have our annual Thanksgiving Day game here and we feel obligated to bring one of the best teams from the state here to play the Seattle champion."

New High School Approved

OSWEGO, Nov. 16 (AP)—A new union high school district for Oswego and Lake Grove was approved yesterday by voters. The vote, 1100 to 354, did not decide financing.

Opposition was directed principally at the choice of a site. The tract had been donated earlier.

Students of the two communities now attend high schools at West Linn and Portland. Enrollment of about 600 pupils is expected within two years.
