MAN AND WOMAN

The story of an engineer who became a derelict in Tahiti, and of a pampered daughter whom he abducted to a desolate island to make of her a beachcomber in retaliation for the cruel humiliation she visited upon him.

A SOUTH SEA ISLAND STORY WITH A REAL KICK COMEDY—"A POWDER ROMANCE."

BRIEF HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Silver Tea.—The ladies of Plymouth Congregational church held a silver tea Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 o'clock until 5. The affair was well patronized and a tidy sum realized for church purposes.

Episcopal Bazaar. — The bazaar and dinner given by the Episcopal Guild Wednesday afternoon and evening as a success from both a social and financial standpoint. Eager purchasers thronged the guild room in the afternoon to buy the many useful articles on sale and in the evening the dining room facilities were taxed to their utmost. Members of the guild wish to express their appreciation for the liberal patronage.

Long Trip — Frank Berdahl of Warren was a caller at The Mist office Monday morning. He and Mrs. Berdahl left Tuesday by auto for California and will spend the winter there. Early in March they will leave California for the New England states going by the old Santa Fe trail. They expect to return to Oregon next fall and will travel the northern road. They want to keep up with what is happening in Columbia county, so ordered The Mist to follow them.

Farm Bureau Meeting.—The annual meeting of the state farm bureau was held in Portland last Friday and Saturday. H. R. Dibblee, of Rainier, was the official representative of the Columbia county farm bureau. John L. Storla, the secretary, was also in attendance and he reports that the entire state was represented by delegates. Much important business was transacted during the busy two-day session.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garth, Mrs. Josphine Eibble and her daughter, Constance, were guests for a few hours Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chambers of West St. Helens.
