The Oregon Mist.

United States and County Official Paper

St. Helens, September 16, 1892.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A social hop was enjoyed by some of our young folks at the Masonic hall last Friday night.

The State Fair opened at Salem Monday with a good attendance, in fact, better than for years.

Attorney G. W. Cole returned last week from a business trip into Idaho and Utah, since which time he has been confined to his house most of the time.

From the Cathlamet Gazette we learn that the Frankfort Chronicle has suspended publication. This is nothing more than has been expected from the time of its first issue. Such wildcat schemes never succeed during dull times.

We have from the Oregon City Enterprise office a copy of the premium list of the Butte Creek (Clackamas county) Fair Association The pamphlet contains over forty pages, and is one of the most neatly printed volumes we have seen for some time.

I have opened my fall stock of millinery goods, and have a good line of Feathers, Tips, Ponpons, Wings, Buckles and novel ornaments to make a hat attractive. I also have kid gloves. Call and get prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Mrs. C. L. Colburn.

The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy is steadily growing, from the fact that all who give it a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly.—Wagley & Smead, druggists, Newton, Iowa. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Professor C. H. Jones, late principal of the St. Helens public school, in a letter to Mr. Edwin Ross, states that he has been employed to teach this winter at Carlton, Yamhill county. Mr. Jones is one of the most successful teachers in the state, a man who devotes his whole energies to the school room, and one who commands the undivided respect of his pupils. Such a man is a natural born school teacher. Carlton may congratulate itself upon getting such a man.

A. J. Apperson has the following ad in the McMinnville Telephone-Register, which is to the point: "The best way to keep your credit good is by not using it too indiscriminately. A thing to remember: September is the month to pay bills whether you receive duns or not. The best time to pay bills is when you have the money. Never put this off until those you owe have to employ an attorney to assist you in raising the money. It is dangerous business."

Many years' practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentee, manufactures, and all who have to do with patents.

Mr. D. O. Quick, of Polk county, came down to visit his son, E. E. Quick, last Saturday. On Monday he received a telegram from home stating that his 12-year-old son had been dangerously scalded by the explosion of a coal oil can which he had transformed into a steam producer, thereby supplying a motive power for one of boyhood's inventions. The exact extent of the child's injuries was not stated. Immediately after receiving the news Mr. Quick started for home.

The city council has passed an ordinance compelling all saloons within the city to close at 12 o'clock midnight, and not open before 5 o'clock the following morning. There is yet two other very important ordinances that should be passed. One is to prohibit cows from roaming the streets at night, more particularly those with their musical clothes on; and the other compelling minors, who have no particular mission to perform, to keep off the streets after 9 o'clock in the evening. In the absence of anything further to ordain, they might authorize the marshall to dispose of the surplus canine flesh found lying along Front street at all times, day or night.

The stage driver between Houlton and Vernonia had quite an interesting experience last Friday. He started out from the former place with the mail, and when a short distance out on the road his team became frightened and ran away, breaking the pole of his wagon. He returned to Houlton and secured another wagon and started again, and again the already nervous team ran away, breaking up the new wagon more or less. Another vehicle was secured and a third attempt was made with the same unpleasant result; only this time the horses succeeded in getting loose and were caught by some traveler a long way from where they started. The driver was somewhat bruised in consequence of his ill luck, and just what plans he devised afterward to forward the mail on to Vernonia we did not ascertain.

Next Monday the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows meets in Portland, and a great deal of pains and money has been spent by the lodges of Oregon to make the session an interesting one. Delegates from all parts of the United States will be present, numbering at least 3000 from abroad, a great many of them being accompanied by their families. This number added to the fraternity in the state will make a grand showing on parade, which takes place at 2:30 in afternoon Monday. The introductory ceremonies take place at the Marquam Grand at 9 in the morning, at which time and place speeches will be made by Governor Pennoyer, Mayor Mason of Portland and the grand lodge officers. The St. Helens Odd Fellows will attend the conclave in a body and take part in the proceedings.
