JUNE 7, 1901.

Nearly $1500 is a very snug income for one month in one of the county offices.

Good roads are a good thing, and we are arriving just about at the point where we can afford to make good roads.

The 1901 assessment of property in Columbia county will show considerable increase over last year. Our county is gradually developing and improving.

A foreign trade of over $2,200,000,000 a year gives the impression that the United States, with a republican protective tariff, is pretty solid in the markets of the world.

An immense merchant steamship of 12,000 tons was launched at San Francisco last week. Uncle Sam's expansion on the Pacific brings along two or three big items every day.

The per capita of wealth in the United States was $308 in 1850, $780 in 1870 and is now $1200. What it will be in the year 2000 is a sum calculated to stagger the statistician.

Few counties in Oregon are in better financial condition than Columbia, if you please. The report to be issued July 1st will make a showing that will substantiate this remark.

Where there are good roads there are also good farms, at least good homes, the making of good farms. Let us start on an era of good, substantial road making, and watch for the results.

Land redemptions in this county are playing a star part in paying off the county debt. Eleven hundred and fifty dollars was collected from that source by the county clerk last month.

Sugar and tobacco imports yield a revenue to this country of $70,000,000 a year and it will not be sacrificed in order to please the Cubans in their project of an independent government.

Sarcoxie, Mo., began with strawberries on a small scale and now ships twenty-eight car loads a day in the strawberry season. Missouri's soil and climate respond according to the effort made.

Where the Northern Pacific will extend its line from Pittsburg is an uncertainty, but that construction will be commenced on the line from Scappoose to Pittsburg within thirty days there is little reason to doubt.

An American torpedo boat just completed at Bath, Me., has a speed of thirty-four miles an hour. The contract was for a mile less, but marine builders in this country are accustomed to give good measure.

"War is hell," remarked a prominent military figure one time, hence the precipitation of a political war in this state at this early time is blasted foolishness. Give us time to recover from one battle before the bugle sounds the call for another line-up.

The substantial and permanent improvement of the roads leading from the river front of this county to its interior—the Nehalem country—is the best investment the county can make. This is not speculation; the results are in sight.

If Dowie succeeds in regenerating Chicago he should come out to the Sound and try his cleansing powers on Seattle. If the Seattle police don't "vag" him before he gets off the train he will find a smiling opportunity to exercise his sin-destroying powers.

It is quite common for people to take stamps off letters that have not been properly canceled and use them again. The postal law is very stringent regarding such cases and the fine is $100 to $500, or six to twelve months imprisonment, or both, as the court may be disposed to inflict.

Dows in Georgia the people are discussing the existence of hell, and the Atlanta Constitution says: "For nineteen hundred years the doctrine of eternal punishment has helped to make people better." If that be true it is hard to say what Georgia might have been without a fear of hell.

In these days the exports of the United States are almost double the imports. For the fiscal year, which ends with next month, the exports will foot up $1,500,000,000, and the imports $850,000,000. The balance of trade, $650,000,000 is one of the greatest instances of expansion the world has seen.

Nehalem valley will do some thriving when the northern's branch reaches there, and if the line should be extended through the country to the mouth of the Columbia an era of greater development, better conditions, happier people and more satisfactory environment will be an immediate outcome.

TALMAGE says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of the business men, has more influence in attracting attention to building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor go where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated."

ENCOURAGE THE RAILROADS.

THE Northern Pacific Railway Company has a regularly authorized agent in the county who is here for the purpose of securing a right of way for the Pittsburg spur, and who will immediately begin his labors in order that all legal and other preliminaries may be disposed of by the time the grade shall be permanently located and contracts let for the work. The line in some places will, of necessity, pass through cultivated and valuable tracts of land, the owners of which will very likely dispute the company's passage and cause some litigation. To those people we wish to say that any legal action on their part will be a broad and expensive mistake. People should consider first of all the benefit which the road will be to them in the way of supplying transportation and thus increasing the value of their lands. A railroad costs the general public nothing, as is not the case with a wagon road, while it furnishes the most satisfactory facilities for transportation and commercial intercourse. The Northern Pacific has done a great deal of railroad building in this country and has a well established reputation for liberality and fair dealing. It has always paid liberally for the privilege of building its lines through private property and the same policy will prevail in the building of the Pittsburg spur. The law of eminent domain gives the company authority to condemn lands through which it may be necessary or convenient to construct lines and the courts will sustain such condemnation proceedings, but the same law compels the company to pay a reasonable indemnity and this the company well understands and will do without force or litigation, therefore, it is simply a waste of time and money to oppose the passage of a railroad through either public or private lands.

Instead of opposing railroad companies in the construction of their lines to remote districts, every encouragement and facility should be freely tendered them for doing so and if the people of this county are alive to their best interests they will take this view of the matter and act accordingly. Without the assistance of railroads it is physically impossible to develop many of the outlying districts of this coast, in proof of which it is convenient to refer to many sections which, though they have been settled in some instances for thirty years or longer, are practically no more developed than when the first settlers entered them.

Railroads are absolutely necessary to the development of this country and they should be encouraged, not hindered in their progress.

INDUSTRIAL development and business system have attained more nearly to perfection in this country than in any other. This has been the result largely of independence of thought and action, and the chance offered men to take the rank their capabilities command. It is also the result of specializing, of developing business in departments each of which makes up a part of the whole and each of which is in charge of men whose duty it is to excel in their particular line. The head of a concern cannot best serve his own interests by attempting to carry all the details of all departments of his business. If his trade is to grow he must have able assistants to look after matters to which he cannot give his personal attention.

Elijah, of bible fame, is on the earth at present for the third time—so it is said. John Alexander Dowie, a Chicago crank and religious fakir, preached to 5,000 people at the Auditorium Sunday and succeeded in convincing 3,000 of his hearers that he is the reincarnation of Elijah, the prophet, who later appeared on the earth as the priest John the Baptist, and who now returns as the representative of God, the enemy of sin and destroyer of all forms of government which have not God alone for a constitution. Dowie, like Schlatter, will find plenty of people who will be duped by him, and like the latter fakir, he will very likely land in the lock-up, and be sentenced for vagrancy.

To Locate the Fault.

Attorney-General Blackburn has prepared a complaint in an action against Sylvester Pennoyer, George W. McBride and Phil Metchan, the men who constituted the state land board at the time of the Davis defalcation, and has sent it to District Attorney Chamberlain, of Portland, for consideration. The action will be brought in Multnomah county and District Attorney Chamberlain will be associated with the attorney-general as attorney for the state.

The complaint will be framed upon the theory that the clerk of the school land board was the agent of the board and not an agent of the state; that his defalcation was a defalcation of the board, for which the members of the board are directly responsible to the state. While all the details of the complaint cannot now be given, it is known that Judge Blackburn has drawn the papers so that they state all the facts regarding the shortage. The questions involved, therefore, may be tried on a demurrer, thus making it possibly unnecessary to incur the expense of a trial.

The American Hen.

The American hen is great institution: At a rough estimate there are about 350,000,000 of hens in the United States and each year they produce something like 14,000,000 eggs, which represent $175,000,000.

About $130,000,000 worth of poultry is eaten in the country during the year and the value of the living hens, at 30 cents apiece, is figured at $150,000,000. So the hen stands for about $455,000,000 in the economics of the United States. The hen out-does the iron industry, the coal industry, the wheat and the corn crop, incidentally scaring more than $1,000,000 ahead of the yearly value of the cows of the country and their produce.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

It is surprising to see the good values marked at such small prices at John Dellar's store, on the corner of First and Yamhill streets, Portland. The following goods are displayed in the nine show windows: Men's and boy's negligee and golf shirts, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1. You save 25c on each dollar in comparison with other stores' prices. Boys' suits, cheviots, blue serges, fancy worsteds or washing suits, from 40c to $4. These prices beat every other store's. Men's suits, the very latest styles, in fancy worsteds, light serge outing suits, from $4.50 to $12.50. High rent stores will charge you $2 more for the very same suit. Men's pants, pure worsteds, neatly striped, from $2 to $6; could not be equaled any place. Men's underwear, 25c, 50c and 75c; good values. Men's and ladies' shoes, vici kid, worth $4; our price $2.50 and $3.50. Boys' shoes, $1.25 and $1.50; as good as other stores charge $2 for. Special line of boys' shoes, sizes 3½ to 5½, for 95c.

All kinds of commercial job printing done at this office at less than Portland prices. Good stock and good work.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale at the St. Helens pharmacy.

How About Your Title?

ARE YOU SURE it is all right? Remember that it is the RECORD that governs. It is our business to search the records and show what they contain in relation to land titles. If you contemplate buying land or loaning money on real estate security, take no man's word, but insist upon knowing what the record shows regarding the title. An Abstract is as essential as a deed. Insist on having it. We have the only set of abstract books in the county. All work promptly executed and satisfaction guaranteed. If you have property to insure give us a call. We are agents for the best fire insurance companies in the world. If you have property for sale list it with us and we will find a buyer.
