Again there is a good run of salmon in the Columbia in this section, and the boats are getting from 150 to 300 pounds daily. One party, who is alone in his boat, caught 1100 pounds in three days. J. H Sheldon shipped three tons to Astoria Wednesday.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by Edwin Ross.

S. G. Schoonover, of Vernonia, passed through town this week to do some business in Rainier. He traveled 39 miles. Thus you will see that a man will almost go around the globe to get to the county seat if it is located at Rainier—Clatskanie Chief.

The Knights of the Maccabees Tent, of Scappoose, will give a grand ball at Watts & Price's hall on Friday evening, July 17th, for the benefit of the Heppner sufferers. This social dance is for a worthy and charitable purpose, and should be generally patronized. Good music will be provided.

It is planned to fit up the lower floor for a store room and the upper story will be divided into office rooms.

Ed. Joseph, the manager of the Rainier county seat fight, came through Clatskanie last week to get to the Nehalem to do his labors on that question—where is that short or is her shortest route from Rainier to the Nehalem Valley? Why didn't he use it instead of coming through Clatskanie? Simply because there is no such route and IF there were, he would have too many hills to climb—Clatskanie Chief.

Miss Mary Conyers, well known in Columbia county, is planning to give a musical concert in Rainier some time during the present month. She will pe assisted by talent from Portland and Rainier, also Tichenor's orchestra from Clatskanie. The concert will conclude with a dance. Mrs. Harrison Allen entertained yesterday afternoon at military eucher. The house was appropriately decorated in red, white and blue, and the arrangements generally were in keeping with things military. A feature of the occasion was the presence of Master Robbie Taylor, who as drum major, proved himself a gallant master of ceremonies. The prizes won at eucher were, Mrs. Horace Thing, first; Mrs. George C. Flavel, second; Mrs. Wilkensen, consolation.—Astorian.

Dr. Ross Will Buy it Back.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Edwin Ross will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. General Passenger Agent Mayo Issues A Magnificent Booklet.

J. C. Mayo, the wide-a-wake general passenger agent of the Astoria & Columbia Railroad Company has issued one of the most attractive descriptive pamphlets ever issued in Oregon, and is elgantly designed in the highest style of the engraver's and printer's art. It is illustrated with 26 half-tone engravings, showing up to excellent advantage scenes in the vicinity of Tillamook rock, cottages and hotels at Clatsop Beach, picturesque scenes along the line of the railroad; also an excellent cut of Rainier. Many of the engravings are of full page size, and are true to nature.

The roadbed is in excellent condition, and trains reach the seaside in four hours from Portland. Close connections are made with the steamer Potter and the Nahcotta for Ilwaco and Long Beach points on the Washington side. Beach excursion tickets are sold at Portland that are interchangeable between the O. R. & N., Vancouver Transportation Company steamers and the railroad.

Cholera Infantum.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal illnesses to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Clothing and Shoes.

It will be worth while for you to investigate the goods in our 16 show windows. Good merchandise at the very lowest prices. The reason why we can undersell our competitors is because we do not pay the high rent they do. Every article in the house is marked in plain figures, so we have but one price. She Named Forest Grove.

Mrs. Judge Lancaster, the lady to whom belongs the honor of naming Forest Grove, died at the home of her daughter on Bachelor's Island, near the mouth of Lewis River, May the 31st. Mrs. Lancaster, whose maiden name was Rosannah Jones, was born February 29th, 1817, in Mahoning county Ohio. She was married to Columbia Lancaster in 1834 and afterward removed to Centerville, Michigan. Ten years later they removed to Missouri, and in 1847 they left there for Oregon, enduring many privations and dangers by the way, but arriving at Oregon City late in the fall. They afterward came to this place and were here in 1850 when the few pioneers met to decide on a name for the town. An old record says that a number of names were suggested as appropriate, nearly all having some prefix to the word "grove" and the name Forest Grove was finally abopted at the suggestion of Mrs. Lancaster, who named it after a town in Pennsylvania with which she was acquainted.

The Lancasters soon after moved from here to a tract of land on Lewis River in Clark county Washington, where most of a long life was spent. Mrs. Lancaster was widely known for her deeds of charity to the homeless and distressed, ever ready and willing to extend a helping hand to the worthy and deserving.—Forest Grove Times.

Mrs. Lancaster resided with her daughter Mrs. Hannah Tyszkewicz, in St. Helens, for some time.
