Gonzales, Hoad In Finals

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—Big Pancho Gonzales, already assured of the $3,000 top money, meets Lew Hoad of Australia tonight in a wind-up of Jack Kramer's $15,000 round robin pro tennis championship that's a mere formality.

Of more importance to Pancho's purse is the doubles final in which he and Aussie Ken Rosewall hope to split $1,500 by defeating Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and Frank Sedgman of Australia.

Pancho ran his record to 5-0 in singles Monday night by dusting off Sedgman, 10-8, 6-2, and then backed into the championship when Rosewall whipped Hoad, 6-2, 9-7. Rosewall finished the tournament with a 5-1 record but even if Hoad licks Pancho in the wind-up to give Gonzales a similar record Rosewall can't claim a title tie because he lost to Pancho last Sunday.

Winston - Salem's Vern Benson and Durham's Charles Kress, Carolina League managers, were teammates on the 1953 Rochester International League pennant winning Red Wings.

Mays Draws 1,000th Hit, But SF Loses

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Willie Mays collected his 999th and 1000-th major league hits Monday night — but that's the best that can be said about the San Francisco Giants in their contest with Milwaukee.

The Giants suffered their third shutout of the season, 7-0, at the hands of the National League leaders. As a result, they fell 2 1-2 games off the pace.

They could get out of town within a half-game of first place — but if they do they'll have to sweep the next two games from the Braves. That's not being done very handily these days.

Manager Bill Rigney plans to start Stu Miller (1-3) against the Braves tonight. The Braves will go with Warren Spahn (8-4).

The most humiliating part about the Giants' defeat was the fact the Braves won behind 27-year-old Carleton Willey, a strong-armed right-hander who never before had started in a major league game.

Willey was the most valuable player with Wichita's American Association champions last year. He recently was recalled from Wichita, where he had a 3-3 record and a no-hit, no runner.

Willey yielded six hits and got his no-runner Monday night on a fancy bit of defensive work by left fielder Joe Adcock.

In the fourth inning, with the Braves ahead 2-0, the Giants put Mays on third by way of a force-out and Leon Wagner on first by way of a single.

Then Ray Jablonski hit a high fly to left near the foul line. Adcock backed to the corner against the 7-foot screen. At the last second, the 6-4 former cage star jumped and pulled the ball out of the stands for the out that preserved Willey's shutout — and knocked out the Giants.

From then on, the Braves poured it on.

Paul Giel, who was relieved in the seventh, was tagged with the loss.

DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI) — Star golfer Lionel Hebert was "beaten" by a stunning total of 4,732 men, 528 women, and, just to rub it in, 35 caddies on National Golf Day.

That was the report today from the Professional Golfers Association, which also disclosed that the annual "day" held this year on June 7 was far more successful financially than any such events in the past and may have drawn more than $100,000 for charity and worthwhile projects.
