Nixon Drops Anchor Into Troubled Sea Of Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon apparently has dropped a 1960 presidential anchor to windward in the troubled sea of New York politics.

Nixon's activity in urging Republican Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester into the race for the Senate was interpreted here as an effort directed in part at keeping the vice president's presidential aspirations afloat in a critical area.

Keating had been reluctant to gamble an almost sure House seat by entering the contest for the post being vacated by GOP Sen. Irving Ives. But he agreed to make the Senate race after Nixon calld him and said both Nixon and President Eisenhower thought he would be a fine nominee.

Shortly afterward, Keating was nominated by the Republican state convention meeting in Rochester.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, told reporters Nixon had informed him of receiving a telephone call from Nelson Rockefeller, GOP nominee for New York governor, saying that Rockefeller and others were strongly urging Keating to run for the Senate.

Hagerty said Nixon talked personally to Eisenhower and then relayed to Keating the word that "both the President and himself thought that Mr. Keating would be a fine candidate, and the vice president urged Mr. Keating not to decline the nomination should the opportunity be presented by the Republican State Convention."

This indirectly breached Eisenhower's self-imposed rule against intervening in the choice of party nominees.

But it provided Nixon with a friendly political associate on a ticket headed by a GOP governor candidate who might become Nixon's chief rival for the party's next presidential nomination.

Sitdown Drive To Continue

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A Negro youth group's leader said a "sitdown" campaign for food service in a downtown luncheoneite will continue into its fifth day today.

Barbara Posey, 15, secretary of the city's NAACP Youth Council, acknowledged a stalemate apparently existed with the management of John A. Brown's department store, where 85 young Negroes are asking food service alongside whites.

"Both sides are holding out," Miss Posey said. "I guess both have hopes yet. We will keep trying."

She said the group did not plan to go to another store "at this time."

White schools at Atoka, Fort Gibson, the Graham district in Carter County and Preston School in Okmulgee County accepted Negroes yesterday for the first time.

Committee Plans Meet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A legislative subcommittee will meet in emergency session Saturday to consider investigating a survey and staff dissension in a few California hospitals.

The survey, made by consulting psychiatrist Richard H. Blum for the California Medical Assn., asserted two surgeons fought with their fists across a patient on an operating table until one surgeon was floored. The hospital was not named.

Sen. John F. Thompson (R-Santa Clara), Senate Public Health Interim Committee chairman, called utterly shocking such reports in Blum's survey as:

Two hospital doctors carried guns in fear of a third.

A dying patient was refused treatment by a doctor who hated the patient's group insurance plan.

BREAKDOWN TRAPS THIEVES

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—James Warren's car broke down at just the right time Monday, while three teen-agers were trying to steal it. Police picked up the youths when they were seen pushing Warren's car through an intersection.
