Rev. Asa Sleeth will preach at Houlton next Sabbath a. m. and at St. Helens in the evening.

Mr. Ed Webster, of Keasey, was a St. Helens visitor Saturday.

A. J. Deming has had considerable improvement made in his home here. A new porch has been built across the front of it and considerable work done on the building itself.

Mr. Adam Stump, of Scappoose, was a St. Helens visitor Saturday.

It is said that the St. Helens, Oregon, Fire Department is there with the goods. That they did good work at the recent blaze is undeniable. The old department is all right, but get together, boys and post your books.

Several millmen were in town last week investigating the prospects of getting logs.

Combs & Girty, of the Houlton Livery and Feed Stable, have been making extensive improvements on their barn, and will soon have a number of new rigs to rent. They are filling a long felt want, and will undoubtedly make a success of their new business.

Miss Lulu Parmelee, of Gresham, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone.

Grandma Baker will leave Houlton in a short time for her home in Portland, where she expects to spend the winter.

The business men of Houlton have signed an agreement to close their stores at 7:30 every evening, except Saturday. This is a very good idea, and the merchants here would do well to follow their example. Everybody who wants to buy anything can get around by that time and it would not be long before they were used to it. It would give the store keepers a a chance to be free a little while in the evening to attend a public meeting or anything of the kind, and would not hurt business in the least.

A fine thirty-acre ranch for sale cheap. Good buildings, well watered, excellent soil, 800 fruit trees. Near Warren, Ore A snap at $2100.

Orville, Earl and Charles Young left here last Tuesday for Portland, where Earl is employed as moterman for the O. W. P. Co.

The campmeeting which was in session here all last week closed with a good meeting last Sunday evening. No converts were made that we know of, but the faithful seemed to have an excellent time. Several good sermons were delivered and undoubtedly the meeting will have a good effect.

Open an account with this Bank and draw checks in payment of your bills. It gives you standing in the business community, and you have a receipt for the payments made aside from the receipted bill. Columbia County Bank.

Remember that it is not too late to help Columbia County's exhibit. Express anything you have to W. J. Fullerton, State Fair Grounds, Salem, Ore.

W. H. Powell was a Portland visitor this week.

W. J. Fullerton has left here with Columbia's exhibit for the State Fair, and all those who have anything that is worth exhibiting should send it to him by express at the fair grounds. Don't fail to do this if you have anything worth exhibiting and it is doubtful if there is a farmer in the county who has not, if he would only look around a little.

Attention to minor details has contributed largely to the success of this institution. Columbia County Bank.

If you don't know this to be a fact I will prove it to you. You need not even buy a sack until you are convinced.

M. C. GRAY,

James Buro, a deckhand on the steamer Beaver, is gaining fame as a retriever of life and property. It appears that Steve Maney, the fireman, was thrown from his feet, his head striking against the rail, he fell unconscious and rolled into the water. Buro dove and caught him as he struck bottom in about twenty feet of water. Maney was unconscious and a heavier man than Burro, yet the latter brought him to the surface and held him until help arrived in answer to his calls. It is told of Buro that on a recent trip of the boat, when at Stella, he was running a truck load of lumber down the gang plank when he lost control of it and it ran into the water. He immediately jumped in after it and brought it back to the boat, against the expostulations of the captain who does not believe in risking life for a few dollars worth of lumber. But Buro is a Spaniard and does not understand English so the only answer he made was to take another header after the trucks. The story does not tell whether he recovered them.

RAINIER

O. A. Kapell and wife and Mrs. Jesse James and Mrs. B. Hill returned Monday night from a ten days trip through the Nehalem Valley. They report having had a fine time and were surprised at the beauty and productiveness of the valley.

Here is a puzzle that puzzles everybody: Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it three, multiply the result by ten, add the number of deaths of brothers and subtract 450 from the result. The right figure will be the number of deaths, the middle will be the number of living sisters and the left will show the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

It Comes Handy—Mrs. James Lowe has received from the head camp of the Woodmen of the World, through the officers of the local organization, Ivy No. 373, the sum of $1,000 upon the beneficiary certificate of her deceased husband. The slight delay that occurred in the allowance of the claim was due to local errors, the protection of all requiring that every detail be strictly complied with.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World will entertain the ladies of Rainier, their husbands and sweethearts at an open meeting in K. P. hall on the 19th of September. A select program together with guard drill, address by Mrs. Knott, representative to the Supreme Convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey. The hives of Kalama, Kelso, Skamokawa, Rileta and Clatskanie participating.

Born—to the wife of James Wilson, on Friday last, a son. Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Harry Dean and granddaughter of Judge J. B. Dean, therefore the newcomer is the great granddaughter of our urbane magistrate, who performed the marriage ceremony for his son, and some twenty years later for his grand-daughter, and is fully convinced that in due course of time he will yoke up his great grandson. The Judge is feeling quite as proud as the immediate parents.

Business is brisk at the Oregon-Kansas mill. The schooners Americana and Compeer are taking on about 450,000 each, and the Olsen which is waiting for wharf room will take about 300,000. The mill has been running shorthanded and on Wednesday a number of Hindus were put to work. Their arrival excited some unfavorable comment, but the proprietors claim it is impossible at present to get white men to do the work. When the mill shut down the men went to different fields, and until the wheat, fruit and hops are gathered there will probably be a shortage of white labor in Rainier. Hindu and Japanese labor will not build up this or any other community, and we hope to see it dispensed with as soon as possible.

Baldwin & Sherwood's hearse has arrived and now, if you so desire, you may be buried with all the fashionable habiliments of woe. These enterprising gentlemen expect soon to have a new building erected especially for their occupancy.

The work of the charter committee is approaching completion and will soon be submitted to the people. The members have labored faithfully and we hope their efforts will meet public approval. The need of a new charter is not disputed and it is not feasible to draft a document that will suit everyone. Let the charter be adopted as it comes from the committee and leave further amendment to care for itself.

Mr. L. S. Thomas has just opened up a swell law office in one of Mr. Diblee's buildings on Water Street. Seven hundred volumes is a big library for any lawyer in a town the size of Rainier, in fact few lawyers anywhere have a larger library, so that Mr. Thomas is prepared to look after anything in the line of law that may come to him.
