Weekend 'Winners' Revealed By Fraley

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fraley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — along with some equally priceless observations on the sports scene in general.

Game of the Week

Missouri over Kansas — Missouri is a seven-point choice on a more potent offense although actually there isn't too much to choose. Against six common rivals, Missouri scored 192 to 40; Kansas 161 to 40. The two Kansas losses were to Syracuse and Iowa, by a total of three touchdowns. Missouri gets the edge on reward incentive with a perfect record, Big Eight title and Orange Bowl berth at stake.

THE EAST

Yale over Harvard — Playing a Big Ten sked they might have won two games.

Penn over Cornell — The blue-plate special.

Pitt over Penn State — Tell me why Navy always comes up "higher" for the Army game.

Princeton over Dartmouth—My ambition is to have less losers.

Also: Clemson over Boston College, Rutgers over Columbia, Holy Cross over Connecticut, Colgate over Brown, Boston U over Buffalo, Gettysburg over Temple, Bucknell over Delaware, Xavier over Villanova, Albright over F & M, Lehigh over Lafayette.

THE MIDWEST

Iowa over Notre Dame — Pro football's not for ordinary mortals.

Ohio State over Michigan—Even "big daddy" gets scared.

Minnesota over Wisconsin—The dressing rooms look like emergency wards.

Northwestern over Illinois—It's safer teaching a woman to drive.

Also: Purdue over Indiana, Oklahoma over Nebraska, Michigan State over Detroit, Miami over Cincinnati.

THE SOUTH

Georgia over Georgia Tech—Jack McCartan proves athletes can't live on press clippings.

Duke over North Carolina—Tell me how rassling refs keep from laughing out loud.

Tennessee over Kentucky—With me, it's thumbs down on walking as a sport.

Syracuse over Miami—Pro golf is the biggest ulcer sport of all.

Also: Maryland over Virginia, Vanderbilt over Tulane, LSU over Wake Forest, West Virginia over George Washington, Auburn over Florida State, North Carolina State over South Carolina.

THE WEST

UCLA over Southern Cal—Ford Frick finally has to make a real decision.

Washington over Washington State — What ever happened to the House of David?

California over Stanford — It bugs me that Casey Stengel turned down the Detroit job.

Oregon over Oregon State — I like Baltimore in the American League next year.

Also: Utah over Utah State, Wyoming over Brigham Young, Oklahoma State over Colorado, COP over Iowa State.

THE SOUTHWEST

Arkansas over Texas Tech—Night flat racing would run the trots out of business.

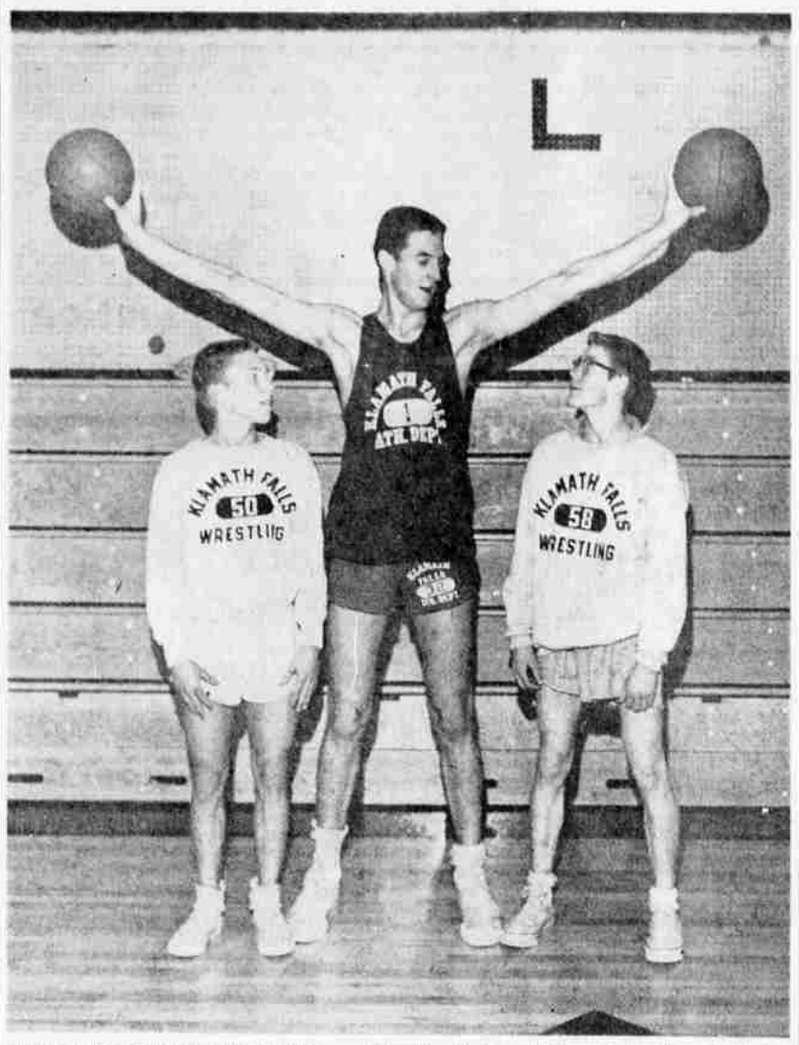
Baylor over SMU — Midget rasslers make me queasy.

Rice over TCU — What ever happened to amateur tennis?

New Mexico State over Hardin-Simmons — I'd probably gutter the ball if I ever needed one strike for 300.

Also: North Texas State over Wichita, Arizona over Kansas State, Bowling Green over Texas Western, New Mexico over Montana.

KU Triple Threat



WINTER PROGRAM UNDERWAY — Standing in the shade cast by Klamath Union All-State basketball player Bruce Brickner are a pair of KU wrestlers who also figure to make names for themselves before the season is over. At left is Milo Crumrine and at right, Gary Head. Brickner, who stands 6-6, has no trouble palming a pair of basketballs.

Percentage High

Claassen Vacations While Relief Chills

By DON WEISS

NEW YORK (AP)—Just like coach Claassen! Builds his percentage over .725, then takes off for some sun-drenched beachcombing, leaving someone else to take a chill with his football picks.

A 36-13-1 record last week made grandpa's over-all percentage a sprightly .729 on a 318-118 won-lost mark.

Well, someone once called persistence a virtue, so it'll be like this in college football this weekend:

Missouri over Kansas: The alumni association is still pressing for that dues check, but this one is based on merits. Any Tiger bunch that can beat Oklahoma can beat Kansas—at least 7-6.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: The goons who were after Murray Warmath's wig settle for an 8-1 season and a tie for the Big Ten title.

Iowa over Notre Dame: The guy who gets the Irish award is the one who had the foresight to schedule California for Notre Dame's opener. He shoulda quit there. Flashing Iowa makes it eight straight Notre Dame losses.

Duke over North Carolina: On to the Orange Bowl.

Arkansas over Texas Tech: Tech's E. J. Holub can't tackle 'em all. The Hogs toward the Cotton Bowl.

Yale over Harvard: Any given day, sez Princeton's Dick Colman, the unbeaten Eli can whip anyone.

Washington over Washington State: Next to the Big Five title and a Rose Bowl bid, Washington likes beating State best.

Penn State over Pitt: Play-it-safe Pitt doesn't get a chance to tie this time.

Once over lightly:

EAST — Clemson over Boston College, Brown over Colgate, Boston U. over Buffalo, Rutgers over Columbia, Bucknell over Delaware, Holy Cross over Connecticut, Lehigh over Lafayette, Princeton over Dartmouth, Villanova over Xavier (Ohio).

SOUTH—Syracuse over Miami (Friday night), Alabama over Tampa, Auburn over Florida State, Furman over Davidson, Richmond over East Carolina, LSU over Wake Forest, North Carolina State over South Carolina, Tennessee over Kentucky, Tulane over Vanderbilt, Maryland over Virginia, George Washington over West Virginia, The Citadel over Arkansas State.

MIDWEST — Michigan State over Detroit, Illinois over Northwestern, Ohio State over Michigan, Oklahoma over Nebraska, Purdue over Indiana, Colorado over Oklahoma State, Wichita over North Texas State, Miami (Ohio) over Cincinnati.

FAR WEST—Arizona over Kansas State, Wyoming over Brigham Young, California over Stanford, New Mexico over Montana, Oregon State over Oregon, Iowa State over College of the Pacific, UCLA over Southern California, Utah State over Utah.

The earliest recorded Olympics took place in 776 B.C., but historians say the games had been going on for 700 years before that.

39 Members Of 1960 KU Club Awarded Letters For Efforts

Thirty nine members of the 1960 Klamath Union Varsity Pelican football team were awarded big "Ks" at a special banquet sponsored by the Pelicanettes in the school cafeteria Monday night.

In addition to the awards, the Pel gridders were treated to a huge turkey dinner and entertainment provided by the Pelicanettes.

Miss Linda Smith, president of the Pelicanettes, presided over the fun-filled program, the high point of which was the surprise showing of baby pictures of each member of the team and the coaches.

Coach Bob Williams presented the awards to 21 graduating seniors and 18 juniors. No sophomore or freshmen players received letters.

Also awarded letters for their commendable work as team managers during the season were Jim Baker, Guy Nelson and Ralph Williams.

Almost forced to miss the banquet was junior fullback Larry McClure, who had been hospitalized with an attack of appendicitis shortly after the season was over. Said Williams, "McClure made it, however—he makes it a point never to miss a big meal."

Portlanders Win Debut

PORTLAND (AP)—Hockey returned to Portland after a decade Tuesday night and the Portland Buckaroos got right into winning ways with a 3-2 Western Hockey League decision over Spokane.

A crowd of 5,584 was on hand for the opener in Portland's new Memorial Coliseum, a turnout of respectable size although officials had been hoping for 10,000.

Portland, pulling its league record even at five wins, five losses and a tie, featured a tough defense that blanked Spokane until there were only seven minutes remaining.

Then in a scramble in front of the Portland net Dick Lamoreaux of Spokane pushed the puck past Portland goalie Don Head, cutting Portland's lead to 2-1.

Eddie Dudych of Portland four minutes later uncorked a long, hard shot that deflected off Spokane player-coach Colin Kilburn and sailed into the Spokane net.

That did it, although Lamoreaux managed another goal in the last second of the game in another scramble in front of the Portland goal.
