Denver began seeing daylight today after escaping the Pacific Coast League cellar by getting potent plate power from a pitcher and rookie triple-A outfielder.

The Bears Sunday swept a doubleheader 11-3, 3-0 from the San Diego Padres, defending champions of the PCL.

In other games, Salt Lake City cooled off torrid Tacoma, 12-9, Dallas-Fort Worth nipped Seattle 1-0 on a ninth-inning home run by Joe Nosske, and Hawaii edged Spokane 6-5 only to have the Indians come back to beat the Islanders 6-3 in the nightcap of a doubleheader.

Rain washed out the Oklahoma City-Portland doubleheader in Oregon and also the second Dallas-Fort Worth game after two innings.

Six-foot southpaw Dick Kelley of Denver stifled San Diego in the clutch by going all the way to pick up his first PCL win. He personally accounted for three Bear runs with a triple and single. Chico Salmon and Phil Roof each added three safeties to Denver's 14-hit attack in its first game rout of the Padres.

In the second game, Denver outfielder Ethan Blackaby, who played for Yakima in the Class B Northwest League last year, lammed a 375-foot home run over the right field fence with two on in the eighth. The blast came off San Diego starter Marvin Fador who had allowed only three Bear hits up to then.

The victory moved Denver from the cellar to fourth place in the tight Southern Division.

Oddly enough, Dallas - Fort Worth replaced Denver in last place even though the Rangers beat Seattle. Gary Dotter went all the way for the Texans, allowing seven hits, and besting Wilbur Wood who was handed his first defeat against two victories.

Salt Lake's Boes pounded five Tacoma pitchers for 19 hits, including Hal Jones' fifth homer of the season, to break the seven-game winning streak of the red-hot Giants. Despite the loss, Tacoma owns the best record in the PCL at 13-7 and is in first place in the Northern Division.

Spokane's Al Ferrara bashed a three-run homer in the first inning of the second game against Hawaii to give the Indians a lead they never relinquished.

In the first game, Hawaii nipped Spokane in the top of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by outfielder Carlos Bernier, the Islanders' leading hitter. The fly scored Charlie Dees who led off the inning with a double and took third on a wild pitch.

Bobby Knopp of Hawaii led all hitters in the first game with three singles and a double. Hal Griggs, the last of five Islander pitchers, hurled two hitless innings to gain his first win of the season.

METS TOP DRAWER

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Mets packed in 128,985 fans at the Polo Grounds for their weekend series with the San Francisco Giants. Figuring an average of $2 per ticket, that amounts to more than $250,000.

As of the moment, the Mets, baseball's biggest losers last year, are the biggest drawing card in the major leagues.

In 10 home dates, they have averaged 23,500 fans. The Los Angeles Dodgers have averaged a few hundred less for 11 dates.

DeNucci-Gonzales Top Boxing Menu

NEW YORK (UPI)—Young Joe DeNucci, excellent boxer-puncher from Newton, Mass., makes his bid for recognition as a middleweight contender Saturday night in a nationally televised fight with Puerto Rican Jose Gonzales at the Boston Arena.

Their 10-rounder stands out on the week's boxing schedule. Each is 23 years old and an aggressive fighter.

Because of his speed, skill and punch, DeNucci is favored at 2-1 to beat slugger Gonzales although Jose is ranked 10th among world 160-pound contenders by the World Boxing Association and DeNucci is unrated.

Giulio Rinaldi of Italy defends his European light heavyweight title against Germany's Erich Schoeppner at Rome on Friday.

Also on Friday, light heavyweight Von Clay of Philadelphia fights Gustav Scholz of Germany at Berlin.
