Big Timber Deal

During the past week papers were filed transferring from James B Stoddard, et al., to the Sumpter Lumber company about 900 acres of fine timber lands adjacent and contiguous to Sumpter, the consideration being over $8000.

This purchase was made on the recommendation of Seymour H Bell, manager of the company, who reports trade conditions excellent and a steady demand for Oregon lumber from eastern points. The company is enjoying very fine foreign trade, shipping out many car loads weekly and is employing large forces at the logging camps, sawmill and planer.—Sumpter American.
