Dodgers Win To Retain National Lead; Indians Defeat Yankees, 4-1

Podres Outduels Reds' O'Toole

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Lefty Johnny Podres showed three All-Star pitchers how it should be done, although he does not plan to be in Cleveland on Tuesday.

The reason he won't be there is simple. He wasn't chosen to the National League All-Star team by manager Alvin Dark.

But he certainly looked as if he should have been Friday night when he beat one All-Star pitcher and earned a richly deserved "well done" from two others in leading the Los Angeles Dodgers to a two-hit 1-0 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Podres bested left-hander Jim O'Toole, one of eight pitchers chosen for the NL All-Star team by Dark. And he also bettered the two most recent performances of his All-Star teammates, Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale.

Koufax blanked the Cardinals on three hits last Wednesday night and Drysdale also whitewashed St. Louis on five hits Tuesday night but Podres was sharper than both in pitching the Dodgers to their fifth straight victory while increasing their league lead to three games.

Howard Homers

Provided with the only run he needed when Frank Howard hammered his 13th homer in the seventh inning, Podres struck out four batters and did not walk a man en route to his sixth triumph.

Tommy Harper's bad-bounce single in the fourth inning was the first hit off Podres, and Johnny Edwards' sixth inning single was the last. O'Toole allowed six hits in suffering his sixth loss against 13 triumphs.

San Francisco overcame St. Louis, 6-5, in 11 innings, Houston beat Milwaukee, 4-2, the Cubs topped the Phillies, 3-2, in 11 innings and the Pirates dealt the Mets their eighth straight loss, 3-1.

Win In Eleventh

Chuck Hiller's 11th inning single off Ed Bauta snapped a 5-5 tie between the Giants and Cardinals after San Francisco knotted the score on Harvey Kuenn's single in the ninth. Willie McCovey drove in three runs with a homer and a single. Jim Duffalo was the winner.

Bob Bruce of the Colts helped himself to his fourth victory with a double and a triple against the Braves, although rookie Jim Dickson was called into the game in the eighth to preserve Houston's third straight win. Rookie Bob Sadowski was charged with his third consecutive loss.

Andre Rodgers' sacrifice fly scored Ernie Banks with the winning run for the Cubs in the 11th inning against the Phillies. Relievers Lindy McDaniel was credited with his fifth victory, which also was the fifth in a row for the Cubs. Johnny Klippstein was the loser in relief of Ray Culp. Ruben Amaro homered for Philadelphia.

Roberto Clemente's two-run homer at the expense of Tracy Stallard in the eighth inning dissolved a 1-1 tie between the Pirates and Mets. Don Cardwell gained his fifth win with Al McBean's help in the eighth.

Yankees Decision Cleveland

CLEVELAND (UPI) — South paw Al Downing struck out 14 batters, coming within one of the New York team record, but still failed to finish the game as the league - leading Yankees downed the Cleveland Indians, 11-6, Saturday on the strength of a seven-run rally in the second inning.

Downing, a 22-year-old fireballer, gave up four runs, including solo homers by Max Alvis and Willie Tasby, before being relieved by Hal Reniff in the eighth with the bases loaded and two out. Reniff ended the threat by getting pinchhitter Fred Whitfield to fly out but he gave up a two-run homer to Mike De La Hoz in the ninth.

The late - inning trouble cost Downing a host at the Yankee record of 15 strikeouts for a nine-inning game set by Bob Shawkey in 1927. Whitey Ford struck out 15 batters in an extra inning game in 1959.

Robert Raikes, English publisher, founded the first Sunday School, opening it in his native Gloucester to help educate poor children.

Muncey Pilots Miss Thriftway To Fastest Gold Cup Trial Time

By JACK LIMPERT

DETROIT (UPI)—Record holder Bill Muncey and his persimmon and white Miss Thriftway, seeking their third consecutive gold cup victory, were the combination to beat Sunday as the fastest field in the 55-year history of the event.

Muncey, of Seattle, seeks to add to his stature as the greatest unlimited driver of this era and at the same time tie the immortal Garwood's record of five gold cup victories. Muncey won the coveted cup in 1956, 1957, 1961 and 1962.

Muncey dominated five days of action-packed time trials by hurtling his giant hydroplane around the Detroit River Course at a gold cup record of 116.463, almost three miles an hour faster than the second-best average turned in by Ron Musson and Miss Bardahl. His boat led a field of 12 that had a combined average of 109.049 miles per hour, easily outdistancing the record average of 107.380 m.p.h. set last year for the gold cup race at Seattle. Miss Bardahl and Miss U.S. I, driven by Roy Duby, also broke the gold cup speed record.

Miss Thriftway, the former Miss Century 21, dominated powerboat racing in 1961-62 as no other boat had done in the long history of the sport. With Muncey at the controls, she won nearly every major race, including successive sweeps of the gold cup, president's cup, governor's cup and diamond cup. The three-time national champion boat last season compiled the amazing record of having finished 55 heats in a row without an engine failure.

Time trials during the week were marred by two accidents. On Tuesday, two-time gold cup winner Danny Foster saw his Gale VII sink when the propeller sheared loose. He escaped injury, but driver Morlan Visel wasn't as lucky. Visel was going into the first turn with Miss Madison at a speed of about 145 m.p.h. Friday when the left sponson tore loose. Visel was thrown 30 feet into the water and was in serious condition in a Detroit hospital. Both boats were so badly damaged they were out of the race.

With the field filled Friday, Saturday's action was centered on attempts to "bump" some of the early qualifiers. Miss Blue Chip, out of Detroit, and Miss St. Regis, Washington, D.C., were successful in ousting Such Crust, Detroit, and Mariner Too, Detroit.

Miss Blue Chip, driven by Walter Kade, turned in a time of 104.770 to better the 96.8 time turned in earlier by Mariner Too. Then Miss St. Regis turned in a time of 102.144, with Jimmy Fyle behind the wheel, to oust Such Crust.

Such Crust didn't give up without a fight. Driver Leo Mucutza, who had a time of 100.396 earlier last week, pushed that to 101.250 in an attempt to stay in the field. But Regis bettered that time and sent Such Crust to the sidelines for this year's race.

The race, to be staged on Detroit's natural marine amphitheater for the 18th time, gets underway at 12:05 p.m. (EST) before a crowd of more than 100,000. The 12 fastest boats will race six at a time in six elimination heats with the six high-point boats gaining the final heat. At stake is $10,000 in prize money and the coveted gold cup.

The 12 qualifiers, their drivers and qualification speeds included:

Miss Thriftway, Seattle, Bill Muncey, 116.463; Miss Bardahl, Seattle, Ron Musson, 113.849; Miss U.S. I, Detroit, Roy Duby, 113.600; Miss U.S. V, Detroit, Don Wilson, 113.326; Tahoe Miss, Reno, Nev., Chuck Thompson, 111.309; Gale V, Detroit, Bill Cantrell, 108.000; Miss Excide, Seattle, Mira Slovak, 107.571; Notre Dame, Detroit, Warner Gardner, 106.572; Dollar Bill, Lompoc, Calif., Norm Evans, 106.330; Miss Blue Chip, Detroit, Walter Kade, 104.770; Tempo, St. Petersburg, Fla., Bob Schroder, 104.633; Miss St. Regis, Washington, D.C., Jimmy Fyle, 102.144.

With the exception of Muncey, Cantrell is the only former gold cup winner scheduled as a regular driver. The former Indianapolis "500" auto driver won in 1949 and has driven in more races than any other pilot.

Wolsborn Grabs Bend Tourney

BEND (UPI)—A Portland golfer won the 1963 Mirror Pond Tournament at the Bend Golf Club Friday. Bob Wolsborn, playing out of Portland's Riverside, finished with a low score of 146.

Millard Porter of Madras, the defending champion, and Jerry Crundari, a University of Oregon star, deadlocked for second place with 149's.

Jerry Houston of Longview and George Beechler of Prineville tied for third with 150's.

Par for the course is 144.

Osa Fires No-Hit Game In SSBR

Musgrove pulled a big upset over the Holiday by winning its second game in downing K.C. Paint, 7-3, while Interstate Pump and South Sixth Street Oxygen continued their winning ways.

The Pumpers whipped K.C. Paint in the Wednesday game, 5-0, and the Oxygen men rapped Metler Brothers, 4-1. Town and Country laced A&W Drive-in, 9-4, in the other contest.

The Interstate team waltzed home on a three-hit pitching job by Mike Milligan. John Barnes was the loser in that game despite giving up only two hits in the four frames he worked. Mike Long came on in relief. Both teams got only three hits. All six hits were scattered singles.

Musgrove pounded out nine hits off loser Ed Johnson who gave up eight safeties. Dennis Coffman was the winner with a six-hit job. Mike Long slammed a triple for the losers and a single. Barnes hit two singles and Johnson a double. Coffman was also the big hitter for the winners with four hits in four trips, including a double. Kelly Cassidy had a double and single.

The Oxygen team pounded out five hits in gaining the 5-0 win over Metler Brothers while Tom Osa was firing a no-hit game on the hill. Osa, also one of the big hitters in the league, struck out 16 men and didn't walk a batter. The run scored on an error, a passed ball and a wild pitch.

Oxygen was led at the plate by Greg Huck who blasted a double and single. Osa had a single, Norman Ferrell a single and Barry Hackler a single for the winners.

Town and Country blasted loser Dave Tockey for six hits while winner Ron Nealy was twirling a neat one-hit contest. He gave up only a double to losing pitcher Tockey. Steven Clement had a pair of singles to lead the winners. A&W committed 18 big errors.

Senators Capture Fourth In Row

By United Press International

Gil Hodges' comeback plans went the way of all good New Year's resolution Saturday—right down the drain.

The Washington Senators are the ones responsible. Who would ever figure them to go on a four-game winning streak?

If the Yankees were on a streak like that, they'd hardly even notice it, but it's different with the last-place Senators. For one thing, it equals their longest one of the season, and for another it makes them feel there is some hope ahead.

The 39-year-old Hodges wasn't kidding about a comeback. He had been taking longer and longer batting practice sessions lately.

"We sure can use some base hits," said the Washington manager.

The Senators didn't exactly break down the fences Friday night but they did clip loser Dan Osinski and Julio Navarro for nine hits in stretching their modest winning streak to four games with a 5-1 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Take Early Lead

Jim King's 14th home run gave Washington a 1-0 lead in the first inning, and after Los Angeles tied the score in the seventh, little Don Zimmer singled home the tie-breaking run during a three-run rally in the bottom of the frame.

Don Rudolph, who has pitched some fine ball in losing nine games so far, stopped the Angels on seven hits for his fourth win.

In the higher regions of the American League, Cleveland defeated the first-place Yankees, 4-1, Boston beat Chicago, 8-3, Detroit downed Kansas City, 4-3, and Baltimore topped Minnesota, 4-3, in the first of two games but lost the nightcap, 7-5.

Helps Own Cause

Dick Donovan limited the Yankees to six hits and chipped in with two timely ones himself to post his sixth win for the Indians. The only run Donovan allowed was Hector Lopez' homer in the seventh. Jim Bouton gave up three runs during the six innings he worked and suffered his fourth loss compared with 10 victories.

Red Sox pitcher Earl Wilson capped a six-run first inning rally with a two-run triple off White Sox' starter Dave DeBusschere. Wilson went the distance for his eighth victory, allowing nine hits, including Pete Ward's 11th homer. Ed Bressoud also hit his 11th for Boston in the third inning.

Reliever John Wyatt's continued troubles helped the Tigers to their win over the A's.

Wyatt has saved 11 games for Kansas City but he suddenly went sour last Thursday when he forced in the winning runs with a balk and a walk in a double loss to Washington. He wasn't much better Friday night after coming into the game with the score tied, 3-3, in the seventh.

Wyatt walked the first batter, then threw high to second base for an error when the next batter, winning pitcher Mickey Lolich, attempted to sacrifice. Both runners moved up on Jake Wood's sacrifice and the winning run scored under Wyatt's throw after Dick McAuliffe bounced a dribbler back to the mound.

Commits Five Errors

The Orioles scored four runs in the first inning of the opener and then hung on for their victory, credited to Ike Delock. Shortstop Zoilo Versalles, who committed five errors during the doubleheader, made two of them in the first inning of the opener. Ray Moore, making his first start in four seasons, failed to get by the first inning.

Home runs by Johnny Goryl, Jimmie Hall and Rich Rollins powered the Twins to a come-from-behind triumph in the nightcap. Reliever Bill Dailey held the Orioles scoreless over the last three innings for his second victory. Vic Power, who collected four of Minnesota's 17 hits, scored the winning run in the ninth on Rollins' single.
