Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Newlin's Drug store; price 50c.

AMUSEMENTS

CAMILLE TONIGHT

There is a pleasing vein of comedy running through the play, relieving the sad portions. Georgia Harper has made a most successful tour of the Pacific Coast and Canada, presenting Camille, and the comments of the press and public have been most flattering. She enjoys the distinction of having no superior in the production of this great play. She also has a fad for fine costumes and has a host of the most elegant gowns ever seen on the American stage. The play is also mounted in costly style, new special settings being used for each act, all in all making one of the most artistic productions ever taken on the road. Steward's opera house tonight.

GEORGIA HARPER CO.

The Georgia Harper Co. presented for their offering for Friday night, Camille To say that the play went well is unnecessary for never did an actress hold an audience more closely than did Miss Harper. Her work especially in the difficult emotional scenes of 3d and 4th acts alone would stamp her as an artist of rare ability. Comparisons are said to be odious, perhaps they are, certainly not to Georgia Harper in the role of Camille As an actress, Miss Harper ranks with Florence Roberts, their work reminding one of the other, except that in Miss Harper's performance the roughness sometimes apparent in Miss Robert's work, does not manifest itself. Jos. Detrick as Armand Duval, that part which so many actors play, and so few play well, was excellent.—Ashland Tribune.

FOR MASONS ONLY

A newspaper report says that Masons throughout Indiana look forward with interest to the receipt of a trowel that has just started from the New York Masonic Temple on a trip that will probably take ten years to complete. With the trowel, the symbol to cement the brotherly love among Masonic fraternity, is a large register in which data are to be inscribed by lodges, where the trowel is exhibited. Every lodge of Masons in the United States will receive the treasure. After the long trip is ended the trowel and its record will be placed in the grand lodge of the state of New York.

NEW PAPER AT ECHO

E. H. Brown of The Dalles, who has made arrangements to run a weekly paper in Echo, has arrived and is beginning the erection of a building in which he will conduct the business. It will be 22x40, and is centrally located. Mr. Stratton of Pendleton, has arranged with Mr. Brown for an interest in the paper and they will begin publication the first of the year.

JEFFRIES WILL NOT FIGHT.

Los Angeles, Dec. 28—James J. Jeffries announces that he will pay no attention to the challenge of "Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to fight him for the heavyweight championship of the world.

"I have retired for good and shall pay no attention to challenges from anybody" said Jeffries.

LOGGING IN PROGRESS

Reports from up the river are to the effect that logging is well under way. The logging road built up Rock Creek from Hilgard, a distance of eight miles, is in constant use and several acres of ground are covered with logs ready for the high water in the spring. Four miles below the "Sheep ranch" a large amount of logs are being banked out from skid roads.

ENGINES BURN OIL

If storage tanks for fuel oil can be secured in Albina, it is possible that the fifty engines in service on the O. R. & N between Portland and Umatilla may be changed into oil burners soon anyway, as an experiment.

However, there is no possibility of the engines used on the Blue mountains being coverted into oil burners, is the opinion of railroad men, on account of the necessity of running with light fires down the mountains, which would be detrimental to boilers with oil burners.

The cost of changing a coal burner is about $1000, and it would require a year to change the fifty engines on the Umatilla-Portland divisions.

RECEIVES BLOODED ANIMALS

C. R. Hibberd has just received three mammoth jacks from Nebraska and Missouri. One of these animals stands 11 hands high and weighs 1180 pounds. Another weighs 950 pounds and one young one and four jennies. In the shipment is one Hambletonian road stallion weighing 1200 pounds. Mr. Hibberd intends to place these animals on sale at his ranch two miles north of Imbler.

SMITH HEADS DELEGATION

Hood River, Dec. 27—The delegation from the city to the fruitgrowers' convention to be held at La Grande January 3 to 5 will be headed by the Honorable E. L. Smith, president of the State Horticultural Society. Other prominent fruit men who will attend the convention from here are A. I. Mason, J. L. Carter, E. H. Shepard, manager of the Fruitgrowers Union, and G. R. Castner. Four of these gentlemen will read addresses at the convention and will later attend the meeting of the State Horticultural Society soon to be held in Portland.

WILL BE 100 YEARS OLD

On Friday, December 28, C. P. Blair of this city, will celebrate his 100th birthday. Mr. Blair is perhaps the oldest man in Eastern Oregon, and bears his great age lightly.

He resides at the home of his daughter Mrs. M. N. Sawtell, at 618 Cosbie street He occupies a room on the upper floor, and goes up and down stairs without difficulty. When it was suggested that a celebration of the century mark be held in his honor, he opposed it and takes remarkable longevity as a matter of ordinary concern.—E. O.

WOODMEN TONIGHT

The W. O. W. will have a special floor work tonight and other features. Members are requested to attend.

SPORTS

COMMERCIAL CLUB WINS

The basket ball game last night at the Commercial Club between the High School team and the Commercial Club team resulted in a victory for the Commercial Club. The score stood 24 to 5. The first half was more even than the second. When time was called for the first half the score stood 6 to 3 in favor of the Commercial Club. The attendance was good and those present pronounced it one of the best games of the season.

BASKET BALL

Basket Ball enthusiasm has certainly taken hold of the people as shown by the way they enjoyed the game Wednesday evening. The High School team though plainly outclassed played a plucky losing game. They say that it would have been a different story if "Weary" Falk who for some unaccountable reason did not show up for the game. Had he been in, the score would probably have been much nearer even, though the Club team would undoubtedly have won for they seldom missed a basket on an open throw.

The militia team has been strengthened by several new players and they claim they will retrieve themselves, for the loss of their first game, next week (date not yet determined) when they will meet the Commercial Club team on their own floor.

THE RICHEST PRIZE FIGHTER

Jack O'Brien is the richest prize fighter in the profession today. He is worth $75,000. Jeffries has saved up nearly the same amount. Jim Corbett is worth about $50,000. Tommy Ryan, Jimmy Britt, Sharkey and Teddy McGovern are worth something like $50,000. Very few other boxers have anything to show for their long careers in the ring. While the purses for prize fights seem enormous at first sight, yet after the boxer pays his manager, his attendants, traveling expenses and other expenses too numerous to mention, he is lucky if he pulls out with ten per cent of the gross receipts.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. for sale by Newlin Drug Co Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
