Coast League Race Tightens Up

By DAVE ROWE
UPI Sports Writer

The race in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League is a nip-and-tuck affair with Oklahoma City one percentage point in front of Dallas-Ft. Worth while the Tacoma Giants picked up some slack over the weekend and remain 3½ games behind Spokane.

Dallas-Ft. Worth took both ends of a doubleheader from downtrodden Seattle, 9-3 and 7-4 while Oklahoma City split with San Diego, dropping the first game 8-3 but coming back to capture the nightcap 3-1. Tacoma made it two straight over Spokane by winning the first game 5-4 but then lost 6-2 in a nine inning affair. Salt Lake City split with Portland, winning the first contest 6-3 but dropping the nightcap 4-2.

Hawaii had its hitting shoes on in the opener, banging three Denver hurlers for 15 hits and a 12-4 decision. Big inning for the Islanders was the second when they crossed the plate seven times. In the second game, Fred Newman tossed a four-hitter as the Islanders rolled to a 5-1 victory. The Hawaii team banged out 10 more hits.

Weatherspoon Stars

Dallas-Fort Worth came from behind in the second game to score six runs in the sixth for the 7-2 verdict. They got seven hits, including a pinch two-run homer by Chuck Weatherspoon. He also had a home run and two singles in the first game.

The victory went to Joe Bonikowski, the second of three hurlers. Guido Grilli was the loser. Veteran George Bamberger got his seventh victory although he was blasted to the showers in the seventh inning when Bill Tuttle and Rac Slider got homers.

Rogelio Alvarez, San Diego first baseman, was a one man army in the first game against Oklahoma City. He had a brace of home runs and two singles for a perfect day at the plate. His hitting gave John Flavin his seventh win against as many losses while Connie Grob got the loss, his ninth of the year. Chico Ruiz got three hits for San Diego, batted in a pair of runs and swiped his 33rd base of the season.

Jim Golden gained his seventh win in the nightcap, holding the Padres to six hits. The Padres were ahead 1-0 going into the sixth when Bob Klaus plastered one of Ted Wills' pitches out of the park with a mate aboard.

Garibaldi Goes Route

Tacoma, after whipping the Spokane Indians 8-0 Saturday night, handed the visitors a 5-4 beating in the nine inning first game. Bob Garibaldi worked the entire game, allowing eight hits to 16 for his club. He aided his own cause in the bottom of the ninth with a run-producing single after Spokane tied it in the eighth on a base on balls and a home run by Jim Barbieri.

The second game, scheduled for 7 innings, went to the ninth when Spokane pushed across four runs to gain the decision. Both teams scored once in the eighth. Tacoma's coming on Jesus Alou's home run.

Phil Ortega aided his own cause starting the rally in the ninth with a single, scoring moments later along when John Werhas doubled. Ortega was tough in the clutches, scattering six hits.

Portland's Lew Krausse chalked up his 10th victory but needed help from Rudy Hernandez in the second game of the doubleheader against Salt Lake City. Hector Martinez drove in two runs for the Beavers with a double and a single.

Three runs by the Bees in the final inning gave them the first game. Jesse White got a two-run single and Jim Stewart singled to drive in the other tally. Al Lary got the win while Dave Thies was the loser.

A CASE FOR SOLOMON

TAMPA, Fla.—The sheriff's department didn't know what to tell him. A young husband called asking for advice in handling a domestic problem. He said his 83-year-old mother had refused to clear off the dining room table. His wife, thoroughly angry, was retaliating by jumping up and down on his mother's bed so she couldn't get to sleep.
