HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED BY COUNTY PAPERS

[NORTH POWDER NEWS]

Miss Ola Johnson of La Grande is visiting Miss Bessie Ashby this week.

Mr. George Hansen has accepted a position with the O. R. and N. Co. as pump man for the company at this place.

Miss Minnie Westaway accompanied by her mother Mrs. Sanford Vandecar are visiting friends in La Grande this week.

Mrs. Dr. Barnes and Miss Nellie Gilkison went to Island City Wednesday in company with Miss Nita Hunter who had been visiting her grandparents since last Saturday.

The election of our worthy townsman Herman Rothchild, is no surprise to his many friends, and meets with the fervent applause of all right thinking people. That the interests of his constituents will always receive his utmost consideration goes without saying and is fuller evidenced by a characteristic remark concerning the definition of democracy which Mr. Rothchild was heard to make soon after the results of the election were made known Claiming that though he is personally opposed to woman suffrage no democrat should be found voting against it for the reason that the utmost limit of liberty to all is the democrats prerogative and furthermore that a representative of people's rights as interpreted by law-makers should be devoid of personal feeling or desire.

The good of the state and county, but practically that of the precinct of North Powder is therefore sure of the best there is in the market for two years at least. To steal Tacoma's thunder "Watch North Powder grow" and hear North Powder crow.-North Powder News.

[Union Republican]

Thank God, we elected a constable in Union anynow!

J. W. Lawrence this week bought the Carrol place in North Union, consider- $500.

George Withycombe, of the Union experiment station, is looking for some kind of seed that will raise more straight Republicans.

Wm Kirk and family, who recently sold their place in North Union, left this week for their new location in Washington.

E. S. McComos and R. J. Pope, of Kansas City, Mo., have taken a three-year lease on a mile of Major Glisan's placer ground and water ditch in Cracker Basin, and will at once install a hydraulic plant. The ditch carries 100 inches of water with a pressure of 100 feet and the ground will average about six feet deep, and is located six miles from Sumpter and west one mile from Bourne. The equipment and mining will be under the supervision of E. S. McComos.

George Wilkinson, an old old settler in this county, whose home place is on Little Creek, at the lower end of the canon, died Wednesday of this week, after a decline covering over a year. The funeral took place Thursday, interment in the Union cemetery. Mr. Wilkinson was about 65 years of age, and a wife and daughter of his immediate family, as well as several cousins and other relatives in the High Valley section to mourn his loss.

The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in this county, and bore ample testimony as to the standing of the deceased and the high regard in which he was held by his neighbors and friends.
