Knotty Knitter Kicks But Feet Need Doctor

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is a crippling one and I need your help. My girl likes to knit. You'd think practice makes perfect but in Sylvia's case it's the opposite. Her knitting gets worse instead of better. Everything she knits has obvious mistakes in it.

Last year Sylvia began to knit sox for me. Well, Ann, these sox are murder on my feet. She gets the yarn knotted up and it feels like I have rocks in my shoes.

If I show up wearing store sox she asks me how come I'm not wearing the ones she made for me. I hate to hurt her feelings, but right now my feet feel as if they have two dozen needles in them. Help me please.—BIG ERNIE.

Dear Ernie: These rocks aren't in your shoes, Brother, they're in your head.

Stop wearing Sylvia's mistakes and tell her why. Your feet need help now, and you are not going to lose Sylvia if you level with her. That's a promise.

Daar Ann Landers: You have printed letters from parents who are heartbroken over the death of a son or a daughter. Well, Ann, death is not the only thief that can deprive parents of a child.

Six months ago our 23-year-old college graduate daughter was married. Carol gave up her religion to marry Steve. We accepted her decision and her father gave her away. We gave them a beautiful wedding.

We have seen our daughter and son-in-law only four times since the wedding although they live less than 15 minutes away. Every time the telephone rings or the door opens we pray it will be Carol and Steve. Of course it isn't and we try hard to hide the disappointment from one another but neither of us does very well.

I don't know why I'm writing this letter because I'm not asking advice. It must be that I needed to express myself. Thank you for being there. — REJECTED

Dear Rejected: Have you invited Steve and Carol to your home? I hope you haven't been sitting around hoping they will drop in. Perhaps the problem is simply one of communication. Why not talk it out?

Dear Ann Landers: You answered a letter about a "me-ow and a tweet-tweet" that you were closing the door on the cat and bird rhubarb. Will you please reopen the fight—for a professional ornithologist who was a little slow in getting his remarks together?

Sorry to disillusion "Greeneyes" but it is not true that only hungry cats go after birds. Healthy cats the sick and injured birds get caught, that the alert birds stay well out of Tabby's reach.

Cats are predators by nature. The cat family is the only animal species, other than man, which derives pleasure from cruelty. Cats go after birds for the sheer heck of it—whether they are hungry or not.

By and large cat-lovers are very much like their pets—introverted, selfish and somewhat treacherous. So—bird watchers of the world, unite! We say death to all cats!—FOR THE BIRDS

Dear For: Your claim that cat-lovers are very much like their pets was particularly interesting to me because I believe this is true of dog lovers.

Repeatedly I have been struck by the physical resemblance between dog owners and their pets. It amuses me when someone says, "Bozo is just like a member of the family" because so often Bozo looks like a member of the family.

Too many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

"Well, now! If you can REMEMBER what the original estimate was we can't be as far behind schedule as I thought!"

Muhammad Denies Any Part

CHICAGO (UPI)—Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad Monday denied that his Negro supremacy sect had any connection with the slaying of Malcolm X. He said "Malcolm died according to his preaching."

The diminutive leader of the Muslims held a rare news conference in his South Side mansion. Police kept guard outside for fear that followers of Malcolm X, a bitter defector from the Muslims, might seek vengeance on Muhammad.

Muhammad expressed no fear of reports that avengers may be en route from New York, where Malcolm X was shot down Sunday, to Chicago.

"I don't feel in any way disturbed about that in the least," he said. "We are innocent of his death. Therefore, I don't care whether 600 or 6,000 are on their way here to get revenge. It is an unjust thing even to think about."

Muhammad said Malcolm X died by the same violence which he had preached himself. It was this love of violence, Muhammad said, which led the Muslims to expel him.

"He seems to have taken weapons as his God," Muhammad said. "Therefore, we couldn't tolerate a man like that. He preached war. We preach peace. We're forbidden to do that (preach war) by God Himself."

Reds Orbit New Probe

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union sent another unmanned satellite into orbit Monday in a stepped up program of space research. Three "Cosmos" satellites were orbited Sunday.

Today's vehicle is number 57 in the Cosmos series, started March 16, 1962. The Soviet news agency Tass said Cosmos 57 was operating "normally."

Nos. 54, 55 and 56 were orbited Sunday piggy-back fashion from a single rocket.

All four satellites were apparently designed to make scientific measurements clearing the way for new manned space flights.

Moscow Radio made brief mention of the U.S. Ranger 8 picture-taking mission to the moon but the broadcast noted several American "failures" and called attention to a similar Soviet feat five years ago. The Russians vehicle obtained photos of the back side of the moon. Ranger 8 produced 7,500 pictures of the front side, many of them revealing close-ups of the lunar surface.

Tass said Monday's Soviet satellite was operating on a frequency of 19.997 megacycles.

The bronze statue atop the State Capitol in Lincoln, Neb., is called "The Sower."
