EUGENE-MULTNOMAH TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the big game of the year with Oregon university. The college boys will clash with the Multnomah Athletic Club at Portland and a great game it will be. The one object of the university team has been this year, to defeat the athletic club and tomorrow will tell the story.

O. A. C. AT WILLAMETTE

The O. A. C. team will play the Willamette university tomorrow afternoon. This should be a fine game, the teams being about equal. According to score dope, O. A. C. has a trifle the best of it.

O. A. C.'s lineup follows:

re, Dobbin, Harding; rt, Bennett; rg, Clark; c. Cherry; lg. Pendergrass; lt, Darby, Finn; le, Shannon, Dobbin; q, Gagnon; lh, Hannan, Cady; rh, Looney, Shannen, f. Wolff. Subs. Harding, Finn, Brock.

ISLAND CITY AT ELGIN

Tomorrow morning the Island City team goes to Elgin where they will battle with Elgin. There has been a few changes in the Island City team. Twidwell who opened the season as half is now at left tackle. Will Valswinkler has been taken from the bunch and will start the game at Elgin playing right tackle. Molienberg who played half, one game is again back to that position.

From over Elgin way comes the report that every day has strengthened the Elginites and by tomorrow their will be a battle royal between these two teams.

Island City's line-up: le Spence; lt, Twidwell or Stein; lg. Shaffer; c. C. Valswinkler; rg Scwbke; rt W. Valswinkler or Stein; re Orton; rh Parker; fb Walteas; lh Mollenberg; q Irwin; subs Kiddle and Davis.

PORTLAND EN ROUTE TO BAKER

Passenger Number 6 this morning carried the Portland high school football team to Baker City where they will try conclusions with the Baker City highs tomorrow afternoon. Manager Roberts was in charge and stated that his team would average 150 but he had a creepy feeling that Baker would win. The team is not a formidable looking one and resembles Elgin's aggregation more than a metropolitan crowd. There were fifteen men with the team and judging from the boys' appearance it will take more than that number no withstand Baker's onslaught.

MARRIED

CONKLIN—RUSSELL—M. Conklin formerly of Wallowa county was united in marriage to Margaret Russel at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. E. B. Hays, this morning.
